Ransom Payoff For Coed Broken Up

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A ransom payoff for kidnaped coed Barbara Jane Mackle was broken up here today, the FBI reported, when a policeman chased a suspicious car near Miami's bayside and recovered a suitcase stuffed with $500,000.

Also found in the car, abandoned by two persons near downtown Miami, was a skin-diving suit, apparently used in making pickup of the money from the waters of Biscayne Bay, the FBI confirmed.

A source close to the millionaire land developing family said in Atlanta earlier that Barbara Jane was alive and unharmed. He declined to elaborate.

The source confirmed the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Mackle, had returned to their plush home at Coral Gables, Fla.

FBI agents, county and city police swarmed into the bayside area where Deputy P. S. Self found the money in the abandoned car. Helicopters and dogs were thrown into the search for the fugitives, one of whom carried a carbine rifle.

"My concern and the father's concern, is for the girl's safety," said Fred Fox, assistant special agent in charge of the Miami FBI office.

$500,000 Nabbed

Fox said the fugitives abandoned a blue Volvo with Massachusetts license tags when Deputy Self noticed the car "where it shouldn't have been."

Fleeing the car, one fugitive carried the carbine. The other dropped the suitcase in his flight.

Packed into the suitcase were used $20 bills banded together in packages, each marked $1,000.

Miami Police Lt. James Knight said his estimate, without counting, was that the bag contained $500,000.

Fox confirmed the ransom effort involved putting the suitcase filled with money into Biscayne Bay where it was apparently recovered by boat.

The boat came to shore near a residence on Brickell Avenue and the transfer to the auto was made.

Self had been in his patrol car about 6 a.m. making idle chatter with city policeman Matthew Horan when he saw the Volvo in the expensive residential area.

Self reported that he was chasing the car and, he said, several shots were fired from the carbine.

Father Kills 4, Wounds 4 At Party

Estranged Wife Is Slain; Man Flees, Takes Own Life

CARLINVILLE, Ill. (AP) — A father of 10 children opened fire on a welfare agency Christmas party for his family Wednesday, police said, killing four persons including his estranged wife and wounding four of his children. He then fled, shot himself and died hours later.

Authorities said Sherman Kline, 38, pulled out two pistols while gifts were being opened in the office of the Illinois Department of Child and Family Services and began firing.

Killed were the wife, Lorraine, 33; two social workers, Frank Wildgrube, 24, and Bonnie Albracht, 23, both of Carlinville; and a receptionist, Ann Keppler, 25, of Benld, Ill.

Two of the children, Michael, 14, and Diane, 8, were in critical condition in a Springfield hospital, while the other two wounded youngsters, Gene, 13 and Judy, 10, were in serious condition in a Carlinville hospital.

After the shooting, Kline drove some 60 miles to the home of a brother near O'Fallon, Mo., where, the brother said, he admitted the shootings, but refused to give himself up.

Vernon Kline said his brother ran into some nearby woods, he heard a shot and called police. Officers found Sherman Kline with a bullet wound in his head. He died later at a hospital.

A spokesman for the welfare agency said he believed Kline was upset because he thought the agency had "come between himself and his family."

Miss Keppler, who was to have been married next March, was credited with saving the lives of two other secretaries in her office when she stepped between them and Kline as he fired into the office.

Cambodians Will Free 12 Americans

Viet Cong Offers To Release Three And Perhaps More

SAIGON (AP) — Cambodia announced today that it is releasing 12 American soldiers captured in the past year, and the Viet Cong offered to free three U.S. troops it holds and possibly more.

Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the Cambodian chief of state, told a news conference in Phnom Penh he was freeing 11 American soldiers and a South Vietnamese captured last July when their river boat strayed into Cambodian waters anl an American helicopter crewman captured last month.

A Viet Cong spokesman in Paris said the three soldiers it is offering to release are Thomas Nelson Jones, Donald L. Smith and James W. Brigham. He gave no home addresses or other information.

The Australian Embassy in Phnom Penh, which represents the U.S. government in Cambodia, said it expected that the 12 Americans being freed there would be flown by commercial airliner to Bangkok Friday.

The U.S. and South Vietnamese commands in Saigon announced, meanwhile, that American, South Vietnamese and enemy casualties all increased last week although no major sustained ground fighting reported. The U.S. Command also reported four sharp skirmishes Wednesday in which it said American forces killed 131 enemy troops.

Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the Cambodian chief of state, toll a news conference in Phnom Penh he was releasing his prisoners so they can spend Christmas with their families.

Will Provide Power On Moon Flight

Apollo 8 Team Starts Job Of Activating 3 Fuel Cells

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Apollo 8 launch team began today the critical task of activating the three fuel cells that will provide electrical power for the space ship on its intended moon orbit flight.

The operation, expected to last several hours, involved piping in supercold liquid hydrogen, at a temperature of 423 degrees below zero, and liquid oxygen, at 297 below, into the fuel cell system. The two combine during flight to produce electricity and a by product, water, used by the astronauts for drinking.

The three astronauts who will fly the mission, meanwhile, slowed their rugged training pace as the countdown neared the final hours for Saturday's launching.

Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders are to ride the awesome power of a Saturn 5 superrocket into space at 7:51 a.m. EST Saturday.

If all goes well, they'll orbit the moon for 20 hours at Christmastime, paving the way for other astronauts to land next year.

The trio Wednesday night watched the fiery blastoff of a Delta rocket and probably expressed a wish that their Saturn 5 works as well. The Delta performed perfectly and hurled a communications satellite into orbit.

Lovell and Anders also spent a few hours with their wives, who flew here by private plane Wednesday from their homes near Houston, Tex.

Marilyn Lovell brought the four Lovell children with her, and they plan to remain here to watch the Apollo 8 launching. The children are Barbara, 15; James, 13; Susan, 10, and Jeffrey, 2.

Valerie Anders returns today to Houston, where she and Susan Borman will watch the blastoff of the Saturn 5 on television.

"I'm excited about the flight and looking forward to it," Mrs. Lovell said. "I think it's a fascinating thing."

The astronauts planned several meetings today with experts to discuss the flight procedures.

They'll be watching closely Friday when the terminal countdown begins. During this period, many vital operations will occur, including the pumping of tons of liquid hydrogen, liquid oxygen and kerosene into the mammoth fuel tanks of the 36-story-tall Saturn 5, the most powerful rocket ever built.

After the rocket hurls the three astronauts to the vicinity of the moon, they will act as explorers, geologists, photographers, physicists and navigators. And Lovell probably will have some fleeting thoughts of a family man as the spacecraft zips over a lunar mountain he has unofficially named "Mount Marilyn" for his wife.

Private Affair Sunday In New York

Guest List Remains Secret For Julie, David Wedding

NEW YORK (AP) — When Julie Nixon and David Eisenhower said they wanted their wedding Sunday to be a private affair, they really meant it.

The guest-list for the marriage of the daughter of the President-elect to the grandson of the former president is still a secret—although it has been learned there are few political or public figures included.

Information about Julie's wedding gown, her attendants' dresses, the single-ring ceremony at Marble Collegiate Church and the reception at the Plaza Hotel will not be released until the last minute.

And there will be no news coverage allowed either of the ceremony or the reception.

"Julie said she did not want anyone watching that wedding who was not a personal friend or someone she knows," Mrs. Gerry Van der Heuvel, Julie's mother's press aide, said Thursday.

Mrs. Van der Heuvel did give out a few tidbits—including the fact that the ceremony will be broadcast, via closed circuit television, to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower who is in Walter Reed Army Hospital recuperating from a series of heart attacks.

She also said that David's sister Barbara Anne, who was married Nov. 16, will be a bridesmaid and her husband, Fernando Echavarria-Uribe of Bogota, Colombia, will be an usher. Julie was one of Barbara Anne's attendants.

Asked about parties for the bride, Mrs. Van de Heuvel said there would be a luncheon given for Julie Friday at the Cosmopolitan Club by Susan Harvin of Houston, Tex., who will be a bridesmaid.

The rehearsal will be Saturday afternoon, by which time the church will be decorated with Christmas greenery and red and white poinsettias the Nixons requested for the platform at the head of the aisle.

A report to Judge Arthur L. Hooper is expected at 10 a.m.

The Grand Jury put in a full day's session Wednesday and was recessed today to discuss the evidence in the case which has covered 13 days. During the long probe, 75 witnesses were called.

The charges were filed against Wells and his department by his brother-in-law Kenneth Swiger, former special deputy. He alleges the sheriff's department provided protection for a house of prostitution near Wellsville.

'New Utopia'

WINNEMUCCA, Nev. (AP) — A prospector has filed claim to 10,000 square miles on the moon to create a "new utopia" he calls "moonshine valley."

O. C. "Charlie" Norris filed his claim Tuesday with Humboldt County Recorder J. L. Germain. The property surrounds whatever point man first sets foot on the lunar surface.

'Homicide' Ruled In County Death

The death of Mrs. Theodosia Wood, 81, of the Westfield Rd. Tuesday night after burglars broke into her home was ruled a homicide Wednesday by Dr. William Kolozsi, Columbiana County coroner.

He said an autopsy revealed internal bleeding from a blunt force injury to the abdomen. The examination also revealed abrasions of the face.

The widow and her brother, Emmett W. Cheney, 86, were seized and pushed to face-down positions on the floor by men who kicked down the front door. The thieves got about $50.

Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan said his department has no clues as yet. So sudden was the entry that Mr. Cheney, who was addressing Christmas cards, did not see the intruders. There were two or more he thought, and one was a husky man, although he could furnish no description. Deputies obtained several fingerprints.

Mr. Cheney received a bruised cheek when he struck the floor. The thieves bound his wrists behind his back with friction tape and pulled off the wire of his telephone.

After freeing himself, he found his sister unconscious and moaning. He went to a neighbor's home to get help. Mrs. Wood was dead on arrival at City Hospital.

Her services will be held Saturday at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. Gale Goode of the LaCroft Church of the Nazarene. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday afternoon and night.

MARK SAID his family is quite happy he has been given an opportunity to spend a year in another country. He has chosen Japan.

He wants to study its culture, which he believes is so different from ours. "We are a loose country," he said. "They are just the opposite. They are stricter."

When asked if he was influenced in his decision by Yuko Takebayashi, the student from Japan who is in East Liverpool this year, Mark said, "No, I made my decision before I knew Yuko very well."

One of Mark's hobbies is karate, and perhaps this explains to some degree his interest in Japan. He plans to continue his education and hopes to become a psychiatrist.

If unable to go to Japan, he prefers Austria or Germany.

LEIGH-ANN says if she gets the opportunity, she favors Columbia. If she cannot go there, anywhere will be suitable, even South Africa.

Her Spanish teacher has lived in Columbia and apparently has influenced Leigh-Ann with some of the stories of the country and its life.

Leigh-Ann plans to major in secondary music, with the piano her primary interest.

All three students have taken both Latin and Spanish.

The exchange students are chosen by a district Rotary committee, with more than 250 applications from some 20 clubs. Approximately 90 were eventually interviewed.

The local students are being sponsored by the East Liverpool Club. If a club can be found in the country of their choice to serve as a "host," the students will be sent to their preferred sites. Otherwise, they will have to go where a host club can be found.

Man Reported 'Fair' Following Injuries

A 44-year-old man is "fair" today at City Hospital with injuries he said were suffered when struck by a hit-and-run driver.

James Florkevich of 317 Carolina Ave., Chester, told Hancock County authorities he was hit early this morning while standing by an auto in front of the Hitching Post on Route 30, two miles east of Chester.

He said he "hitched" a ride to the hospital. He suffered lacerations of the lip, mouth and tongue.

The sheriff's office is investigating the man's story.

Thomas Leek said 15 per cent of the high school students are absent, not much above normal for the season. The Salineville Elementary has about 10 per cent out.

Wells Junior High School at Newell has one-third its enrollment absent due to illness, Curtis Smith, principal, said. There's been a "decided increase" in absenteeism, Smith added.

In other Hancock schools, Chester Intermediate and Primary, and the Newell Jefferson School, the attendance reports have decreases in attendance, though not as severe as the junior high school.

Oak Glen High School Principal Russell Slack noted that although attendance is about "normal", a third of the wrestling team is reported ill.

At Midland High School, absenteeism has been 50 to 60 a day, compared to the normal 20-25. Western Beaver High School had 50 students out today, up from the normal 30. Both districts reported good attendance at elementary schools.

Southside High School listed 70 students out, compared to the normal 40.

Bar Proprietor Fined For Assault On Patron

Richard Wilk of Wellsville RD 1, proprietor of the 606 Bar on Dresden Ave., was fined $15 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of assault and battery early today on a patron identified as Otto Jenkins.

The charge was filed by Lt. Robert B. Pyle and Patrolman James Buckley at 2:27 a.m. Lt. Pyle testified he and Buckley witnessed the alleged assault.

Wilk, questioned by the judge said: "Jenkins had too much to drink and I asked him to leave. He was using very foul language in front of a woman employe. There were three of them and they were going to come over the bar at me. I slapped him once."

Woman Driver Hurt In Wreck On Bridge

A 41-year-old East Liverpool woman suffered injuries when her car was struck from behind by a truck Wednesday at 11 a. m. on the Chester Bridge.

Wilma Williams of 1707 Cleveland Ave. was treated at City Hospital for contusions of the back after the car she was driving was hit from behind by a truck driven by Steven Watt Fennell, 18, of 1608 Chester Ave., Wellsville.

West Virginia state police investigated. The driver of the truck was not cited.

Using Money As A Weapon

Many kinds of weapons are being used in the war in Vietnam, ranging from those used in hand-to-hand combat to the huge B-52 bombers. But one weapon which is being employed has not received much publicity—money.

Vietnamese piasters are being used directly to buy information as to where Viet Cong weapons caches are located. The government's "Open Arms" ministry encourages Viet Cong and their sympathizers to join the government's side and disclose arms or intelligence information.

Some may call it bribery. Others may say simply that the policy is based on the belief that money can buy anything and that every man has his price.

Regardless of the philosophy behind the policy, it seemingly is working. The government recently was led to five caches containing 173 weapons by a 72-year-old rice farmer who received the equivalent of $5,990 for his information.

The award was based on a regular reward scale for the weapons but it represented a fortune for the Vietnamese peasant.

If the enemy's teeth can be drawn by the persuasion of money it certainly is to be preferred over military engagements and the resultant loss of life to both sides.

Striving For Understanding

The confrontations between police and protesting demonstrators throughout the land have caused almost everyone to take sides in debating how far law enforcement should go and which techniques of suppression are acceptable and which are not.

The communications media have supplied the fuel for the arguments which have raged in practically every community in the United States. Pictures of bloodied demonstrators and injured policemen focused attention on the accompanying reports of fighting which occurred primarily on the university campuses.

But there have been other results of the confrontations and the developments which came after. One of these has been the effort, on the part of some institutions and organizations, to understand the work of police departments and how they go about performing their duties.

In San Antonio, Tex., law students at St. Mary's University are accompanying police on their rounds in a special program designed to promote understanding by members of both professions.

The students act as observers and do not participate in the actual police work. But they are required to file a complete report with the university after each trip, and a copy of the report is forwarded to the police department.

The plan would seem to have much merit. If it is found to be successful in achieving its purpose, it should be adopted by other educational institutions throughout the nation.

The Tar Award

The Review's annual award—a pot of hot tar and a bushel basket of chicken feathers—for the meanest trick of the holiday season earned two more candidates this week—the first in a Westfield robbery of an elderly couple in which one victim died, and the other a second attempt to burn the community Christmas tree.

Evil, ignorance and stupidity abound throughout the year, as do the prayers of Christians that all mankind will adopt mercy, forgiveness and brotherhood. Fortunately, there are countless examples of fellowship and good turns at this season of the year, for which the givers and the recipients should be grateful.

We hope we find no others to qualify for the tar decorations in 1968, but that justice will be meted out to those on the list we already have compiled.

Where Buffalo Roam

Once nearly extinct in the United States, the great monarchs of the plains of North America are being ranched, like cattle, in Canada. Our northern neighbor soon may even begin exporting buffalo steaks and roasts as specialty gourmet items.

BUFFALO MEAT tastes and looks like ordnary beef and is regarded as a luxury item in Canada. It became popular at Canadian centennial dinners and banquets last year.

The Canadian government is selling small groups of buffalo to private ranchers to see if the animals can be commercially bred and marketed.

We normally think of buffalo as roaming the vast western plains but the one buffalo ranch already operating in Canada is in Quebec Province.

The Canadian government also is considering a plan to restore buffalo ranching by Indians whose ancestors lived exclusively on buffalo before the white man came to North America. Indians now are ranching beef cattle in many sections of the country.

Millions of buffalo were killed by the white buffalo hunters during the last century until only 250 animals were left by 1900. They were completely annihilated east of the Mississippi River in this country.

THEN THE GOVERNMENT stepped in to protect them and today there are 16,000 in Canada and 9,000 in the United States.

The Canadian government says the commercial ranching will not be allowed to affect the buffalo's comeback for only surplus animals will be sold to the ranchers.

True Jurisprudence

A third 6-year term on Columbiana County's Common Pleas Court bench will be started next month by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of East Liverpool who took the oath of office Wednesday.

Judge Buzzard's election to another term without opposition is proof of recognition of his abilities throughout the county. In the past 12 years, the 65-year-old jurist has extended an exceptional career in law which began in 1930, and included community service as president of the board of education and president of the Chamber of Commerce among other volunteered obligations.

He has earned the respect of attorneys and other jurists, and the operation of his court and the decisions he has rendered have stood the test of efficiency and justice for which the innocent and the guilty and the taxpayers can well be thankful.

Diplomacy In The Middle East

The pre-inaugural visit between President-elect Richard M. Nixon and Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan accentuates the upcoming administration's serious attitude toward the Middle East.

Mr. Dayan's statements following the conference support Mr. Nixon's position of following a two-pronged attack on the disquieting situation in hopes of averting a U.S.-Soviet confrontation.

The Israeli military leader said America should continue to arm his country as a deterrent to Arab resumption of open warfare while striving for closer ties with Arab countries.

IN A PRE-ELECTION SPEECH Mr. Nixon said: "I support a policy that would give Israel a technological military margin to more than offset her hostile neighbors' numerical superiority. I am not a military expert, and I will rely on the judgment of military experts. If maintaining that margin of superiority should require Phantom F-4 jets, we should supply those jets so they can maintain that superiority."

On the other front, Mr. Nixon has opened the door to negotiations with Arabs by saying: "Some Arab leaders equate America's support of Israel as being against them. That is absolutely untrue. The United States should work with every nation in the Middle East willing to live in peace with its neighbors in a far-reaching development program."

The Eisenhower Plan for providing atomic plants for desalting sea water to irrigate deserts has been dusted off as one means of transforming the "arms race into a race for development."

Mr. Dayan and Mr. Nixon don't agree on one point. The Israeli military expert says his country refuses to give up one yard of territory captured in the June 1967 war.

On that issue, Mr. Nixon has said: "It is my view that for Israel to make formal and final possession of the occupied territories would be a grave mistake. At the same time it is not realistic to expect Israel to surrender vital bargaining counters in the absence of a genuine peace and effective guarantees."

It is going to be quite a feat for the Nixon administration to carry on amicable relations with the Arabs while shipping arms to Israel. The opportunity exists for the arms race to take precedence over the development race.

CAIRO ALREADY has extracted a promise from the Soviet Union for 200 new MIG-23 all-weather fighters to offset U.S. Phantom F-4s going to Israel.

To put the brakes on the deadly one-upmanship arms game, Mr. Nixon will have to pursue a policy indicated in another pre-election statement: "Looking ahead, we must deal directly with the Soviets diplomatically on the subject of the Middle East."

A two-power summit meeting soon after Mr. Nixon takes office would be one way to help clear the air over the Middle East and other critical issues that keep the world in turmoil.

High Court Post Filled

Most Ohioans are understandably unfamiliar with the record of Robert M. Duncan who has been selected by Gov. James A. Rhodes to serve as a justice on the Ohio Supreme Court.

The Columbus Municipal Court judge will take over his new duties when Justice Paul W. Brown resigns Jan. 3 to become attorney general of Ohio. William B. Saxbe is leaving the state post to become a U.S. senator.

Gov. Rhodes has had great success in picking top men for high-level positions and is familiar with the record and potential of Mr. Duncan.

The high court appointee has held other appointive jobs in Columbus and on the state level. He was chief counsel in Atty. Gen. Saxbe's office in 1966 when Gov. Rhodes tapped him for the municipal court post.

Mr. Duncan was elected to a full term as municipal judge in 1967 which reflects voter confidence in his ability.

The high esteem in which he is held by Gov. Rhodes and the respect of his judicial associates are excellent indications of Mr. Duncan's qualities.

We are confident he will serve well.

Now It Can Be Told

VICTOR RIESEL

Vigil On President-Elect

WASHINGTON — That sage old labor lion, George Meany, can growl with the best of them. At a big dinner the other night, he warned that the movement which he leads is "organizationally set up to function equally well in foul weather as well as fair."

Victor Riesel

On this dais with the AFL-CIO chief was a beaming Hubert Humphrey, who grinned approval at what appeared to be a sharp thrust at President-elect Richard Nixon. But everybody knows that a growling lion does not bite. Not yet, anyway.

Mr. Meany was not snapping at Dick Nixon. The union chief, a cross between Vince Lombardi and Talleyrand, was merely going through the motions. For a long time now, he has kept his criitcism of Mr. Nixon pointedly political but strictly impersonal.

What's more, the nation's number one labor chief has not been critical of the President-elect in many a private conversation and conference. This is the acid test. There was many a chance to sound off amidst his colleagues this past weekend, as labor's high command gathered here for an unusual discussion of the movement's foreign policy.

IT IS ON THIS front that a strong bond exists between the nationol labor leadership and Mr. Nixon. They see eyeball to eyeball. They see the Communist regimes not so much a network of idologies, but as an alliance of invaders.

It was dramatic coincidence that, on the very day Mr. Nixon announced his cabinet, his severest critic, an enemy which the President-elect shares with Mr. Meany, namely Walter Reuther, was in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, seeking an appointment with Marshal Tito.

On that same day, Mr. Meany's colleagues conferred here with leaders of Domei, the anti Communist Japanese labor federation in Tokyo. Domei's toughest enemy is something called Sohyo, a crushingly powerful coalition of militant Socialist and Communist unions. Mr. Meany will not talk with Sohyo's chiefs. Mr. Reuther will.

It is the joy of Mr. Meany's critics to describe him as a transplanted plumber — but the sharp interest in battling global communism belies all charges of pipefitting provincialism.

THUS LABOR WAS delighted when Dick Nixon named his good friend Robert Murphy as the transitory foreign secretary. And the union chiefs were delighted with the appointment of Bill Rogers, also an old friend, as Secretary of State.

Thus, strangely perhaps for the outsiders, but not for the initiated, the labor establishment is prepared to work with Mr. Nixon, unless he abandons what campus critics call the hard line.

They're well satisfied with the incoming Secretary of Labor, George Shultz. They're convinced that Mr. Nixon will not get tough and that he will keep the White House door open to them, as he pledged during his campaign. Some of us would not be surprised if the next President played the piano for a bit at the next AFL-CIO national convention in Atlantic City this October.

SO, ODDLY CONTRARY TO what was expected after a "Nixon win," labor is at this very moment watching the foreign front more intently than the domestic field. As Mr. Meany said the other night, labor can take care of itself. It has prospered and developed tremendous power industrially, politically and financially during Republican as well as Democratic regimes.

But the play's the thing on the foreign front. Will Mr. Nixon consult them, as did Lyndon Johnson?

As President, will he continue to see eyeball to eyeball with their hard-line policy toward the Soviet and Maoist regimes?

There will be clues. Who will become the Assistant Secretary of Labor for International Affairs? What about the labor attaches, some of whom have thought of Dick Nixon as a male Medusa? Will Mr. Nixon consult Walter Reuther's and Frank Fitzsimmons' Alliance for Labor Action (ALA) as equals with the 13.8 million-member AFL-CIO, in development of foreign policy goals and priorities?

How will Mr. Nixon treat, and what will be the size of, union delegations to the International Labor Organization (ILO) conferences in Geneva?

Labor is watching Mr. Nixon's hard line and will get tough if it softens.

Extraordinary Event

No president has heretofore addressed as many people prior to his inauguration as President-elect Nixon did last Wednesday over the nationwide television networks and major radio stations.

It was an extraordinary event, not only because Mr. Nixon introduced the 12 members of his cabinet but because he explained the reasons and purpose which motivated him in making the appointments.

The president-elect spoke extemporaneously — without any notes or memoranda in front of him. He made one small mistake when he introduced the new secretary of commerce and didn't mention the name of Maurice Stans, but he made up for it later in the speech.

CONSIDERING THE IMPORTANCE of the whole occasion and the delicacy of the subject matter of his talk, Mr. Nixon did remarkably well not to make any other slips, as so often happens with impromptu speeches. Mr. Nixon was careful to speak graciously about the outgoing secretary of state and others in the Johnson administration. Even before he presented his cabinet, he introduced Walter E. Washington, mayor of the national capital, and said he would reappoint him.

Since Mr. Washington is a Negro, this was doubtless intended to show that Mr. Nixon is not unmindful of the necessity of recognizing talented and well-qualified Negroes for appointive offices.

It is being pointed out that Mr. Nixon has not included in his cabinet a Negro or a woman or a Democrat. But the president-elect did try unsuccessfully to get Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, a Democrat, to take the position of secretary of defense, and it is understood that a cabinet post was offered to Sen. Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts, Negro.

If there had been available a Negro with the background and experience the other men can furnish to the cabinet, undoubtedly Mr. Nixon would have been glad to appoint him. The same might be said with respect to a woman appointee.

It is unfortunate that when major appointments are made, so much emphasis is expected to be placed on the color, religion or nationality of the nominees. Actually, a president is compelled to look for individuals who fit a particular job and he must avoid making a choice related to the influence of racial, ethnic or religious support in politics.

Members of Congress are, generally speaking, inclined to go along with a new administration at the start. Many Democrats have already spoken favorably about the selections for the Nixon cabinet.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, Democrat of Arkansas and chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, says he feels sure that the new secretary of state, William P. Rogers, has "the common sense and good judgment" to serve the country well. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader of the Senate, also lauds Mr. Rogers.

Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia, another Democrat and longtime chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, praises the entire cabinet as "men of outstanding ability and unquestioned devotion to our country." So does Rep. George H. Mahon of Tex. a Democrat and chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

The several weeks prior to an inauguration and the first few months of a new president's term are customarily described by persons in the political world as the "honeymoon" period. This is because the opposition party doesn't like to take the risk of commenting adversely about a president, lest it be charged that the critics are expressing themselves just for criticism's sake.

When the "honeymoon" does come to an end, it is usually over some major issue.

IF MR. NIXON CAN MANAGE to bring law and order, help to end the war in Vietnam, cut down the cost of living, and deal effectively with other issues causing so much uneasiness in the country, he will continue to get nationwide applause. But he is up against some problems which are almost unsolvable or will take many years to deal with satisfactorily.

The president-elect is a good politician and an experienced hand in governmental affairs. He presumably will be careful to avoid the mistakes of an "extremist." He probably will come to be known as a "moderate" who is trying conscientiously to do the best he can.

Using Money As A Weapon

Many kinds of weapons are being used in the war in Vietnam, ranging from those used in hand-to-hand combat to the huge B-52 bombers. But one weapon which is being employed has not received much publicity—money.

Vietnamese piasters are being used directly to buy information as to where Viet Cong weapons caches are located. The government's "Open Arms" ministry encourages Viet Cong and their sympathizers to join the government's side and disclose arms or intelligence information.

Some may call it bribery. Others may say simply that the policy is based on the belief that money can buy anything and that every man has his price.

Regardless of the philosophy behind the policy, it seemingly is working. The government recently was led to five caches containing 173 weapons by a 72-year-old rice farmer who received the equivalent of $5,990 for his information.

The award was based on a regular reward scale for the weapons but it represented a fortune for the Vietnamese peasant.

If the enemy's teeth can be drawn by the persuasion of money it certainly is to be preferred over military engagements and the resultant loss of life to both sides.

Striving For Understanding

The confrontations between police and protesting demonstrators throughout the land have caused almost everyone to take sides in debating how far law enforcement should go and which techniques of suppression are acceptable and which are not.

The communications media have supplied the fuel for the arguments which have raged in practically every community in the United States. Pictures of bloodied demonstrators and injured policemen focused attention on the accompanying reports of fighting which occurred primarily on the university campuses.

But there have been other results of the confrontations and the developments which came after. One of these has been the effort, on the part of some institutions and organizations, to understand the work of police departments and how they go about performing their duties.

In San Antonio, Tex., law students at St. Mary's University are accompanying police on their rounds in a special program designed to promote understanding by members of both professions.

The students act as observers and do not participate in the actual police work. But they are required to file a complete report with the university after each trip, and a copy of the report is forwarded to the police department.

The plan would seem to have much merit. If it is found to be successful in achieving its purpose, it should be adopted by other educational institutions throughout the nation.

The Tar Award

The Review's annual award—a pot of hot tar and a bushel basket of chicken feathers—for the meanest trick of the holiday season earned two more candidates this week—the first in a Westfield robbery of an elderly couple in which one victim died, and the other a second attempt to burn the community Christmas tree.

Evil, ignorance and stupidity abound throughout the year, as do the prayers of Christians that all mankind will adopt mercy, forgiveness and brotherhood. Fortunately, there are countless examples of fellowship and good turns at this season of the year, for which the givers and the recipients should be grateful.

We hope we find no others to qualify for the tar decorations in 1968, but that justice will be meted out to those on the list we already have compiled.

Where Buffalo Roam

Once nearly extinct in the United States, the great monarchs of the plains of North America are being ranched, like cattle, in Canada. Our northern neighbor soon may even begin exporting buffalo steaks and roasts as specialty gourmet items.

BUFFALO MEAT tastes and looks like ordnary beef and is regarded as a luxury item in Canada. It became popular at Canadian centennial dinners and banquets last year.

The Canadian government is selling small groups of buffalo to private ranchers to see if the animals can be commercially bred and marketed.

We normally think of buffalo as roaming the vast western plains but the one buffalo ranch already operating in Canada is in Quebec Province.

The Canadian government also is considering a plan to restore buffalo ranching by Indians whose ancestors lived exclusively on buffalo before the white man came to North America. Indians now are ranching beef cattle in many sections of the country.

Millions of buffalo were killed by the white buffalo hunters during the last century until only 250 animals were left by 1900. They were completely annihilated east of the Mississippi River in this country.

THEN THE GOVERNMENT stepped in to protect them and today there are 16,000 in Canada and 9,000 in the United States.

The Canadian government says the commercial ranching will not be allowed to affect the buffalo's comeback for only surplus animals will be sold to the ranchers.

True Jurisprudence

A third 6-year term on Columbiana County's Common Pleas Court bench will be started next month by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of East Liverpool who took the oath of office Wednesday.

Judge Buzzard's election to another term without opposition is proof of recognition of his abilities throughout the county. In the past 12 years, the 65-year-old jurist has extended an exceptional career in law which began in 1930, and included community service as president of the board of education and president of the Chamber of Commerce among other volunteered obligations.

He has earned the respect of attorneys and other jurists, and the operation of his court and the decisions he has rendered have stood the test of efficiency and justice for which the innocent and the guilty and the taxpayers can well be thankful.

Diplomacy In The Middle East

The pre-inaugural visit between President-elect Richard M. Nixon and Israeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan accentuates the upcoming administration's serious attitude toward the Middle East.

Mr. Dayan's statements following the conference support Mr. Nixon's position of following a two-pronged attack on the disquieting situation in hopes of averting a U.S.-Soviet confrontation.

The Israeli military leader said America should continue to arm his country as a deterrent to Arab resumption of open warfare while striving for closer ties with Arab countries.

IN A PRE-ELECTION SPEECH Mr. Nixon said: "I support a policy that would give Israel a technological military margin to more than offset her hostile neighbors' numerical superiority. I am not a military expert, and I will rely on the judgment of military experts. If maintaining that margin of superiority should require Phantom F-4 jets, we should supply those jets so they can maintain that superiority."

On the other front, Mr. Nixon has opened the door to negotiations with Arabs by saying: "Some Arab leaders equate America's support of Israel as being against them. That is absolutely untrue. The United States should work with every nation in the Middle East willing to live in peace with its neighbors in a far-reaching development program."

The Eisenhower Plan for providing atomic plants for desalting sea water to irrigate deserts has been dusted off as one means of transforming the "arms race into a race for development."

Mr. Dayan and Mr. Nixon don't agree on one point. The Israeli military expert says his country refuses to give up one yard of territory captured in the June 1967 war.

On that issue, Mr. Nixon has said: "It is my view that for Israel to make formal and final possession of the occupied territories would be a grave mistake. At the same time it is not realistic to expect Israel to surrender vital bargaining counters in the absence of a genuine peace and effective guarantees."

It is going to be quite a feat for the Nixon administration to carry on amicable relations with the Arabs while shipping arms to Israel. The opportunity exists for the arms race to take precedence over the development race.

CAIRO ALREADY has extracted a promise from the Soviet Union for 200 new MIG-23 all-weather fighters to offset U.S. Phantom F-4s going to Israel.

To put the brakes on the deadly one-upmanship arms game, Mr. Nixon will have to pursue a policy indicated in another pre-election statement: "Looking ahead, we must deal directly with the Soviets diplomatically on the subject of the Middle East."

A two-power summit meeting soon after Mr. Nixon takes office would be one way to help clear the air over the Middle East and other critical issues that keep the world in turmoil.

High Court Post Filled

Most Ohioans are understandably unfamiliar with the record of Robert M. Duncan who has been selected by Gov. James A. Rhodes to serve as a justice on the Ohio Supreme Court.

The Columbus Municipal Court judge will take over his new duties when Justice Paul W. Brown resigns Jan. 3 to become attorney general of Ohio. William B. Saxbe is leaving the state post to become a U.S. senator.

Gov. Rhodes has had great success in picking top men for high-level positions and is familiar with the record and potential of Mr. Duncan.

The high court appointee has held other appointive jobs in Columbus and on the state level. He was chief counsel in Atty. Gen. Saxbe's office in 1966 when Gov. Rhodes tapped him for the municipal court post.

Mr. Duncan was elected to a full term as municipal judge in 1967 which reflects voter confidence in his ability.

The high esteem in which he is held by Gov. Rhodes and the respect of his judicial associates are excellent indications of Mr. Duncan's qualities.

We are confident he will serve well.

Now It Can Be Told

VICTOR RIESEL

Vigil On President-Elect

WASHINGTON — That sage old labor lion, George Meany, can growl with the best of them. At a big dinner the other night, he warned that the movement which he leads is "organizationally set up to function equally well in foul weather as well as fair."

Victor Riesel

On this dais with the AFL-CIO chief was a beaming Hubert Humphrey, who grinned approval at what appeared to be a sharp thrust at President-elect Richard Nixon. But everybody knows that a growling lion does not bite. Not yet, anyway.

Mr. Meany was not snapping at Dick Nixon. The union chief, a cross between Vince Lombardi and Talleyrand, was merely going through the motions. For a long time now, he has kept his criitcism of Mr. Nixon pointedly political but strictly impersonal.

What's more, the nation's number one labor chief has not been critical of the President-elect in many a private conversation and conference. This is the acid test. There was many a chance to sound off amidst his colleagues this past weekend, as labor's high command gathered here for an unusual discussion of the movement's foreign policy.

IT IS ON THIS front that a strong bond exists between the nationol labor leadership and Mr. Nixon. They see eyeball to eyeball. They see the Communist regimes not so much a network of idologies, but as an alliance of invaders.

It was dramatic coincidence that, on the very day Mr. Nixon announced his cabinet, his severest critic, an enemy which the President-elect shares with Mr. Meany, namely Walter Reuther, was in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, seeking an appointment with Marshal Tito.

On that same day, Mr. Meany's colleagues conferred here with leaders of Domei, the anti Communist Japanese labor federation in Tokyo. Domei's toughest enemy is something called Sohyo, a crushingly powerful coalition of militant Socialist and Communist unions. Mr. Meany will not talk with Sohyo's chiefs. Mr. Reuther will.

It is the joy of Mr. Meany's critics to describe him as a transplanted plumber — but the sharp interest in battling global communism belies all charges of pipefitting provincialism.

THUS LABOR WAS delighted when Dick Nixon named his good friend Robert Murphy as the transitory foreign secretary. And the union chiefs were delighted with the appointment of Bill Rogers, also an old friend, as Secretary of State.

Thus, strangely perhaps for the outsiders, but not for the initiated, the labor establishment is prepared to work with Mr. Nixon, unless he abandons what campus critics call the hard line.

They're well satisfied with the incoming Secretary of Labor, George Shultz. They're convinced that Mr. Nixon will not get tough and that he will keep the White House door open to them, as he pledged during his campaign. Some of us would not be surprised if the next President played the piano for a bit at the next AFL-CIO national convention in Atlantic City this October.

SO, ODDLY CONTRARY TO what was expected after a "Nixon win," labor is at this very moment watching the foreign front more intently than the domestic field. As Mr. Meany said the other night, labor can take care of itself. It has prospered and developed tremendous power industrially, politically and financially during Republican as well as Democratic regimes.

But the play's the thing on the foreign front. Will Mr. Nixon consult them, as did Lyndon Johnson?

As President, will he continue to see eyeball to eyeball with their hard-line policy toward the Soviet and Maoist regimes?

There will be clues. Who will become the Assistant Secretary of Labor for International Affairs? What about the labor attaches, some of whom have thought of Dick Nixon as a male Medusa? Will Mr. Nixon consult Walter Reuther's and Frank Fitzsimmons' Alliance for Labor Action (ALA) as equals with the 13.8 million-member AFL-CIO, in development of foreign policy goals and priorities?

How will Mr. Nixon treat, and what will be the size of, union delegations to the International Labor Organization (ILO) conferences in Geneva?

Labor is watching Mr. Nixon's hard line and will get tough if it softens.

2 Are Injured As Autos Hit

Two Wellsville residents were injured in a two - car head-on collision on Route 45, about a mile north of Wellsville, at 3:20 p.m. Wednesday.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said cars driven by Frank C. Netti, 41, of 1130 Esther Ave. and Mrs. Hilja Lauva, 46, of 1262 Hillcrest were involved, with the fronts of both cars badly damaged.

Netti was headed north and Mrs. Lauva south, the patrol said.

Netti was treated for a fractured left knee and admitted to City Hospital. He was listed as "fair" this morning.

Mrs. Lauva had complained of injuries, but apparently was not treated.

There were no injuries in a truck - car collision on the Eagleton Rd. about a mile west of Route 45 north of Lisbon Wednesday at 12:40 p.m.

James S. Kemple, 52, of Fisher Ave., driving a Golden Star Dairy truck, was traveling east when a 1967 coach operated by Eva B. Forney, 46, of Lisbon RD 5 slid on the icy roadway and struck the truck.

The Forney vehicle then went off the road into a ditch.

A Beaver Falls resident was cited for reckless operation as the result of a one-car accident on Route 170, 350 feet north of the Calcutta - Smiths Ferry Rd., Wednesday at 11 p.m.

Dale F. Brelloch Jr., 19, of 612 Harbison Rd., Beaver Falls, was northbound in a 1965 convertible when it went off the left side of the road, ripped out 30 feet of fence, hit a mailbox and continued on, striking 20 feet of guardrail.

The left side of the car was demolished. Brelloch and a passenger, Robert Works, 19, of East Palestine RD 1, complained of injuries, but apparently were not treated.

Brelloch was fined $25 and costs each today in Municipal Court on charges of reckless driving and producing an altered operator's permit. Queried by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, he admitted changing the year of birth on the license from 1949 to 1946 "so I could get in beer parlors where they have dances."

East End Man Sentenced As Drunk Driver

An East End man was fined $250 and costs today in Municipal Court, sentenced to five days in County Jail and given a 90-day suspension of his operator's permit after pleading guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Charles V. Barnes, 23, of 1651 Park Ave. was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Monday at 8:45 p. m. after a one-car mishap on Route 39 near Wellsville. The patrol reported his auto went off the highway on a curve and hit an embankment. Acting under a new state law, the court also ordered Barnes to surrender the license plates from his car, the registration paper and his driver's license.

Meanwhile, William G. Pugh of Thompson Pl., whose auto was involved in a collision on Thompson Pl. Wednesday night, drew a fine of $100 and costs after pleading "no contest" on a charge of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated. The charge was reduced from an allegation of driving while intoxicated on which he was arrested originally.

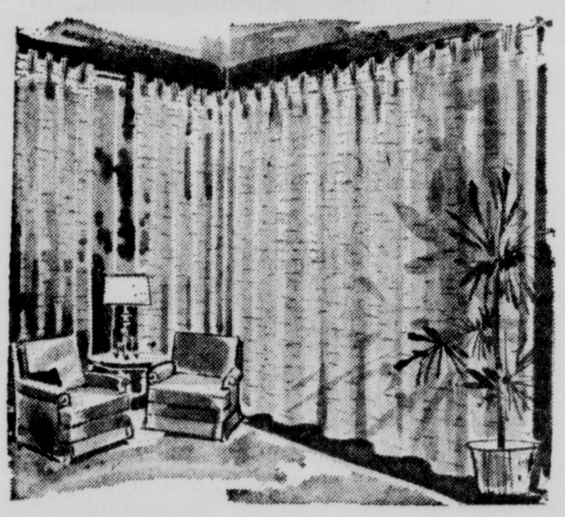

Roy M. Coleman of Chester was fined $25 and costs on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle. He was cited in a Lisbon St. traffic mishap Wednesday night.

Mrs. Jane L. McDaniel, 39, of Summit Dr. was fined $10 and costs on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way in pulling from a private driveway. She was cited by the patrol Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. after a mishap on Route 170 in front of St. Clair Plaza. Mrs. McDaniel told the court she could not see oncoming traffic because she was blinded by the sun on her windshield.

Ciudad Guayana, Venezuela, stands where the Orinoco and Caroni rivers meet just 170 miles from Angel Falls, the world's highest cataract.

The next term will be the last also for Judge Buzzard, who was 65 last Saturday.

2 Are Injured As Autos Hit

Two Wellsville residents were injured in a two - car head-on collision on Route 45, about a mile north of Wellsville, at 3:20 p.m. Wednesday.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said cars driven by Frank C. Netti 41, of 1130 Esther Ave. and Mrs. Hilja Lauva, 46, of 1262 Hillcrest were involved, with the fronts of both cars badly damaged.

Netti was headed north and Mrs. Lauva south, the patrol said.

Netti was treated for a fractured left knee and admitted to City Hospital. He was listed as "fair" this morning.

Mrs. Lauva had complained of injuries, but apparently was not treated.

There were no injuries in a truck - car collision on the Eagleton Rd. about a mile west of Route 45 north of Lisbon Wednesday at 12:40 p.m.

James S. Kemple, 52, of Fisher Ave., driving a Golden Star Dairy truck, was traveling east when a 1967 coach operated by Eva B. Forney, 46, of Lisbon RD 5 slid on the icy roadway and struck the truck.

The Forney vehicle then went off the road into a ditch.

A Beaver Falls resident was cited for reckless operation as the result of a one-car accident on Route 170, 350 feet north of the Calcutta - Smiths Ferry Rd., Wednesday at 11 p.m.

Dale F. Brelloch Jr., 19, of 612 Harbison Rd., Beaver Falls, was northbound in a 1965 convertible when it went off the left side of the road, ripped out 30 feet of fence, hit a mailbox and continued on, striking 20 feet of guardrail.

The left side of the car was demolished. Brelloch and a passenger, Robert Works, 19, of East Palestine RD 1, complained of injuries, but apparently were not treated.

Brelloch was fined $25 and costs each today in Municipal Court on charges of reckless driving and producing an altered operator's permit. Queried by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, he admitted changing the year of birth on the license from 1949 to 1946 "so I could get in beer parlors where they have dances.

Ciudad Guayana, Venezuela, stands where the Orinoco and Caroni rivers meet just 170 miles from Angel Falls, the world's highest cataract.

East End Man Sentenced As Drunk Driver

An East End man was fined $250 and costs today in Municipal Court, sentenced to five days in County Jail and given a 90-day suspension of his operator's permit after pleading guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

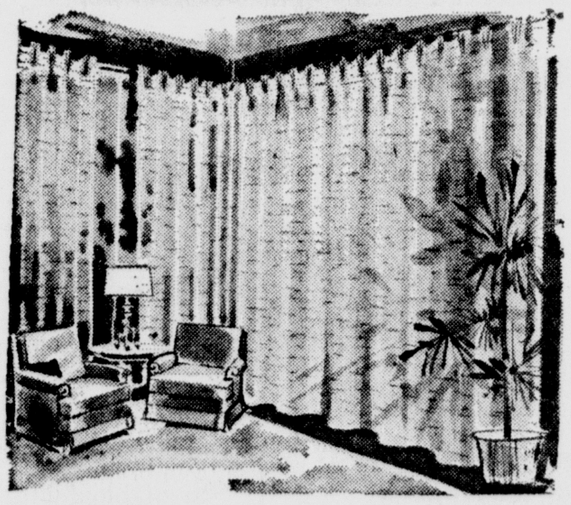

Charles V. Barnes, 23, of 1651 Park Ave. was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Monday at 8:45 p. m. after a one-car mishap on Route 39 near Wellsville. The patrol reported his auto went off the highway on a curve and hit an embankment. Acting under a new state law, the court also ordered Barnes to surrender the license plates from his car, the registration paper and his driver's license.

Meanwhile, William G. Pugh of Thompson Pl., whose auto was involved in a collision on Thompson Pl. Wednesday night, drew a fine of $100 and costs after pleading "no contest" on a charge of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated. The charge was reduced from an allegation of driving while intoxicated on which he was arrested originally.

Roy M. Coleman of Chester was fined $25 and costs on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle. He was cited in a Lisbon St. traffic mishap Wednesday night.

Mrs. Jane L. McDaniel, 39, of Summit Dr. was fined $10 and costs on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way in pulling from a private driveway. She was cited by the patrol Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. after a mishap on Route 170 in front of St. Clair Plaza. Mrs. McDaniel told the court she could not see oncoming traffic because she was blinded by the sun on her windshield.

Fee Of $500 Set On Dumps

LISBON — The 1969 fee for operators of landfill dumps in Columbiana County will be $500. Dr. M. K. Singer, county health commissioner, has announced.

In setting the fee this week, the County Board of Health said the charge will be reviewed next November to determine whether it should be increased or reduced.

Under orders of the Ohio Department of Health, solid waste disposal sites and operations must comply with state regulations by Jan. 1 or they will be closed.

Dr. Singer said the county has several dumps which will have to be closed, but he cannot say how soon the action will be taken.

The board amended the county plumbing code to license plumbers. The fee is $50 for master plumbers and $10 for journeymen the first year and $25 and $5, respectively, per year thereafter.

Dr. Singer said 34 cases of strep throat and five cases of rheumatic fever were diagnosed in the General Health District the past month.

Thirty-six plumbing permits and 19 sewage permits were issued last month.

The butternut tree is often tapped for the distinctive flavor of its sugar sap.

Santa and the HIPPIES

By LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Ding Dong gives the hippie poems to the Purple Witch. They are the first new thing she had read in a hundred years. She rewards him with the purple thread.

CHAPTER 16

Ding Dong rushed back to Butterfly Kingdom with the purple thread.

The Queen took the three colored threads he had gotten and wove them into one three-colored string. She gave the string to Ding Dong and said, "Hesekiah must break this string. Then and only then will the spell on Santa Land be over."

"What are you going to do with this corn?" asked Edgar.

"But how will Hesekiah break it?" asked Ding Dong.

"That is your final task," said the Butterfly Queen. "But if it is not broken in three days Hesekiah's spell will last forever."

"We can never do it!" groaned Edgar.

The Butterfly Queen said, "In three days Christmas will be here. All the children in the world are waiting for Santa. You must find a way."

DING DONG nodded gravely. He put the string into the paper bag with the popcorn popper and the spinning top. Then he and Edgar got in the little plane and flew away to Santa Land.

When they arrived Edgar warned. "Don't touch anything and be careful where you step. The magic salt is everywhere."

He pointed to Santa's private tool shop. There was smoke coming from the chimney—the only sign of life in Santa Land. "Hesekiah is there!"

They crept to the door and peeped through the keyhole. There was Hesekiah whacking and chopping away on his hideous machine to take the place of people.

Ding Dong tried to open the door. It was locked. "I'll knock,' said Ding Dong. "When he comes to the door we'll quickly break the string across his head."

HE KNOCKED and pounded and kicked at the door but Hesekiah never heard a sound, so intent was he on his fantastic invention.

There was nothing to do but wait for Hesekiah to come out and break the string.

They waited all day and all night and part of the next day. Hesekiah went on smashing and clouting on his invention and never came out of the door.

"It's Christmas Eve!" moaned Edgar. "We've only a few hours more!"

Ding Dong emptied out the paper bag he'd brought from Hippieville. He had used all the gifts the hippies had given him except the popcorn popper. He stared at it glumly.

Suddenly he asked, "Is there any corn in Santa Land?"

"Tons of it," said Edgar. "All stored away where Hesekiah's salt wouldn't have touched it."

"Bring all you can!" cried Ding Dong.

EDGAR rushed away. Ding Dong took the spinning top that was Santa Claus out of the popcorn popper and set it gently on the ground. He climbed onto the roof of the shop with the popcorn popper under his arm.

Edgar returned with two enormous sacks of corn. "What are you going to do?" he gasped when he saw Ding Dong on the roof.

"You'll see!" cried Ding Dong. "Pass up the corn!"

Santa and the HIPPIES

By LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Ding Dong gives the hippie poems to the Purple Witch. They are the first new thing she had read in a hundred years. She rewards him with the purple thread.

CHAPTER 16

Ding Dong rushed back to Butterfly Kingdom with the purple thread.

The Queen took the three colored threads he had gotten and wove them into one three-colored string. She gave the string to Ding Dong and said, "Hesekiah must break this string. Then and only then will the spell on Santa Land be over."

"What are you going to do with this corn?" asked Edgar.

"But how will Hesekiah break it?" asked Ding Dong.

"That is your final task," said the Butterfly Queen. "But if it is not broken in three days Hesekiah's spell will last forever."

"We can never do it!" groaned Edgar.

The Butterfly Queen said, "In three days Christmas will be here. All the children in the world are waiting for Santa. You must find a way."

DING DONG nodded gravely. He put the string into the paper bag with the popcorn popper and the spinning top. Then he and Edgar got in the little plane and flew away to Santa Land.

When they arrived Edgar warned. "Don't touch anything and be careful where you step. The magic salt is everywhere."

He pointed to Santa's private tool shop. There was smoke coming from the chimney—the only sign of life in Santa Land. "Hesekiah is there!"

They crept to the door and peeped through the keyhole. There was Hesekiah whacking and chopping away on his hideous machine to take the place of people.

Ding Dong tried to open the door. It was locked. "I'll knock,' said Ding Dong. "When he comes to the door we'll quickly break the string across his head."

HE KNOCKED and pounded and kicked at the door but Hesekiah never heard a sound, so intent was he on his fantastic invention.

There was nothing to do but wait for Hesekiah to come out and break the string.

They waited all day and all night and part of the next day. Hesekiah went on smashing and clouting on his invention and never came out of the door.

"It's Christmas Eve!" moaned Edgar. "We've only a few hours more!"

Ding Dong emptied out the paper bag he'd brought from Hippieville. He had used all the gifts the hippies had given him except the popcorn popper. He stared at it glumly.

Suddenly he asked, "Is there any corn in Santa Land?"

"Tons of it," said Edgar. "All stored away where Hesekiah's salt wouldn't have touched it."

"Bring all you can!" cried Ding Dong.

EDGAR rushed away. Ding Dong took the spinning top that was Santa Claus out of the popcorn popper and set it gently on the ground. He climbed onto the roof of the shop with the popcorn popper under his arm.

Edgar returned with two enormous sacks of corn. "What are you going to do?" he gasped when he saw Ding Dong on the roof.

"You'll see!" cried Ding Dong. "Pass up the corn!"

Fee Of $500 Set On Dumps

LISBON — The 1969 fee for operators of landfill dumps in Columbiana County will be $500. Dr. M. K. Singer, county health commissioner, has announced.

In setting the fee this week, the County Board of Health said the charge will be reviewed next November to determine whether it should be increased or reduced.

Under orders of the Ohio Department of Health, solid waste disposal sites and operations must comply with state regulations by Jan. 1 or they will be closed.

Dr. Singer said the county has several dumps which will have to be closed, but he cannot say how soon the action will be taken.

The board amended the county plumbing code to license plumbers. The fee is $50 for master plumbers and $10 for journeymen the first year and $25 and $5, respectively, per year thereafter.

Dr. Singer said 34 cases of strep throat and five cases of rheumatic fever were diagnosed in the General Health District the past month.

Thirty-six plumbing permits and 19 sewage permits were issued last month.

The butternut tree is often tapped for the distinctive flavor of its sugar sap.

Rival Teacher Units Act In Election Bid

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Opposing groups in a teachers' union dispute Wednesday called for binding arbitration to establish an election for bargaining recognition.

The Springfield Education Association, 456 members, and the Springfield Federation of Teachers, 150, agreed an election should be held in February. But the larger group wants all personnel except school superintendents and their assistants to be represented, and the federation would exclude all administrators.

ANN LANDERS

Shoplifters Unite, Repent

By Ann Landers

E. DAVIS — 22 — Dec. 16

Thurs., Dec. 19 — LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a teen-ager and one of the luckiest people on earth because I haven't been caught. I began to shoplift about a year ago. I was with a friend who picked up two tubes of lipstick in a drugstore. It looked so easy I decided to try it.

To make a long story short, I've shoplifted $47 worth of items from a big department store. (I kept track.) A few weeks ago I began to feel ashamed of myself. I also began to break out in a cold sweat every time I passed that store. Yesterday I decided to make a New Year's resolution: No more stealing.

I have $39 saved and I want to send it to the store. I'll send the rest when I can. Plese tell me how to go about returning the money without revealing myself. Does this make any sense to you? — NEW LEAF.

Dear New: Yes, it makes a lot of sense. Send the money (well wrapped so it doesn't show through the envelope) to the store's credit manager. Enclose a note saying, "This is part payment for merchandise I shoplifted. The balance will be sent later."

And now, I have an idea. Between us we could start a national trend toward honesty. I suggest that every person who is shoplifting — and wants to quit —follow your lead. Mail, to the credit manager of a store you've stolen from, as much money as you can spare. It will serve as a symbol of "The New Leaf."

If the credit managers who receive these envelopes will let me know the names of the stores, I'll publish them. Wouldn't it be wonderful if I heard from every one of the 50 states?

Too Late

Dear Ann: My husband and I were married two yers ago in Washington, D.C. It was a hurry-up affair in the judge's chambers because my fiance was leaving for Vietnam and received his orders suddenly.

Both of us regret that we didn't have a church wedding with all the trimmings. We've decided "better late than never." We want to be remarried on our third anniversary and invite all our relatives and friends to a real honest-to-goodness, bride-and-groom affair — new rings, satin gown, rice and the works.

My mother blew her stack when I told her. We have a little daughter now and my mother says no woman in her right mind would have a fancy church wedding after she has had a child. I think she is being very narrow-minded and old-fashioned.

Please print your answer so my mother can see it. — WHEELING, W. Va.

-:-

Dear Wheel: I'm printing your letter so you can see it, Doll. I agree with your mother.

Confidentially

To Anonymous 71-year-old: Your generosity is overwhelming. If you will send me your name and address and restate your offer, I promise to protect your identity. Mark your envelope "Personal, confidential and private."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Santa and the HIPPIES

By LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Ding Dong gives the hippie poems to the Purple Witch. They are the first new thing she had read in a hundred years. She rewards him with the purple thread.

CHAPTER 16

Ding Dong rushed back to Butterfly Kingdom with the purple thread.

The Queen took the three colored threads he had gotten and wove them into one three-colored string. She gave the string to Ding Dong and said, "Hesekiah must break this string. Then and only then will the spell on Santa Land be over."

"What are you going to do with this corn?" asked Edgar.

"But how will Hesekiah break it?" asked Ding Dong.

"That is your final task," said the Butterfly Queen. "But if it is not broken in three days Hesekiah's spell will last forever."

"We can never do it!" groaned Edgar.

The Butterfly Queen said, "In three days Christmas will be here. All the children in the world are waiting for Santa. You must find a way."

—:—

DING DONG nodded gravely. He put the string into the paper bag with the popcorn popper and the spinning top. Then he and Edgar got in the little plane and flew away to Santa Land.

When they arrived Edgar warned. "Don't touch anything and be careful where you step. The magic salt is everywhere."

He pointed to Santa's private tool shop. There was smoke coming from the chimney—the only sign of life in Santa Land. "Hesekiah is there!"

They crept to the door and peeped through the keyhole. There was Hesekiah whacking and chopping away on his hideous machine to take the place of people.

Ding Dong tried to open the door. It was locked. "I'll knock,' said Ding Dong. "When he comes to the door we'll quickly break the string across his head."

—:—

HE KNOCKED and pounded and kicked at the door but Hesekiah never heard a sound, so intent was he on his fantastic invention.

There was nothing to do but wait for Hesekiah to come out and break the string.

They waited all day and all night and part of the next day. Hesekiah went on smashing and clouting on his invention and never came out of the door.

"It's Christmas Eve!" moaned Edgar. "We've only a few hours more!"

Ding Dong emptied out the paper bag he'd brought from Hippieville. He had used all the gifts the hippies had given him except the popcorn popper. He stared at it glumly.

Suddenly he asked, "Is there any corn in Santa Land?"

"Tons of it," said Edgar. "All stored away where Hesekiah's salt wouldn't have touched it."

"Bring all you can!" cried Ding Dong.

EDGAR rushed away. Ding Dong took the spinning top that was Santa Claus out of the popcorn popper and set it gently on the ground. He climbed onto the roof of the shop with the popcorn popper under his arm.

Edgar returned with two enormous sacks of corn. "What are you going to do?" he gasped when he saw Ding Dong on the roof.

"You'll see!" cried Ding Dong. "Pass up the corn!"

Vote Expenses Listed By 3 More Candidates

With the deadline set Friday at 4 p.m., three more candidates who sought office in the Nov. 5 general election have filed the required sworn statements of campaign expenses with the County Election Board.

A committee which supported Douglas Applegate, Steubenville Democrat, for the state senate reported expenses of $2,585.53. The report was filed by Jacob Entinger, chairman.

Lew Sowards of near Lisbon, an unsuccessful Democratic candidate for county commissioner, said he spent $777.42. Mrs. Virginia Shipley of Salem, defeated Republican candidate for county treasurer, listed $478.09 in expenditures.

The Election Board said all successful candidates had reported by today and reports also were on file from all except one of the defeated candidates.

43-Vote Error Found In Recount At Beaver

BEAVER — A 43 vote error favoring Rep. Robert O. Davis of the 13th Legislative District was found today by a special recount board in Beaver County.

Davis, the incumbent, was apparently defeated at the general election by Frank Springer of Beaver Falls, a Democrat.

Several absentee ballots were challenged and both candidates filed for recounts in certain precincts.

William Smith, director of elections, said the error was made in Precinct 1 of Patterson Township. Five other ballot boxes are to be opened and recounted.

This is the only major error found to date and could give Davis another term. The official count certified to the state shows Springer the winner.

ANN LANDERS

Shoplifters Unite, Repent

By Ann Landers

E. DAVIS — 22 — Dec. 16 . Thurs., Dec. 19 — LANDERS ..

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a teen-ager and one of the luckiest people on earth because I haven't been caught. I began to shoplift about a year ago. I was with a friend who picked up two tubes of lipstick in a drugstore. It looked so easy I decided to try it.

To make a long story short, I've shoplifted $47 worth of items from a big department store. (I kept track.) A few weeks ago I began to feel ashamed of myself. I also began to break out in a cold sweat every time I passed that store. Yesterday I decided to make a New Year's resolution: No more stealing.

I have $39 saved and I want to send it to the store. I'll send the rest when I can. Plese tell me how to go about returning the money without revealing myself. Does this make any sense to you? — NEW LEAF.

Dear New: Yes, it makes a lot of sense. Send the money (well wrapped so it doesn't show through the envelope) to the store's credit manager. Enclose a note saying, "This is part payment for merchandise I shoplifted. The balance will be sent later."

And now, I have an idea. Between us we could start a national trend toward honesty. I suggest that every person who is shoplifting — and wants to quit —follow your lead. Mail, to the credit manager of a store you've stolen from, as much money as you can spare. It will serve as a symbol of "The New Leaf."

If the credit managers who receive these envelopes will let me know the names of the stores, I'll publish them. Wouldn't it be wonderful if I heard from every one of the 50 states?

Too Late

Dear Ann: My husband and I were married two yers ago in Washington, D.C. It was a hurry-up affair in the judge's chambers because my fiance was leaving for Vietnam and received his orders suddenly.

Both of us regret that we didn't have a church wedding with all the trimmings. We've decided "better late than never." We want to be remarried on our third anniversary and invite all our relatives and friends to a real honest-to-goodness, bride-and-groom affair — new rings, satin gown, rice and the works.

My mother blew her stack when I told her. We have a little daughter now and my mother says no woman in her right mind would have a fancy church wedding after she has had a child. I think she is being very narrow-minded and old-fashioned.

Please print your answer so my mother can see it. — WHEELING, W. Va.

-:-

Dear Wheel: I'm printing your letter so you can see it, Doll. I agree with your mother.

Confidentially

To Anonymous 71-year-old: Your generosity is overwhelming. If you will send me your name and address and restate your offer, I promise to protect your identity. Mark your envelope "Personal, confidential and private."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Editor Proposes Federal Study Of News Media

WASHINGTON (AP) — An executive of one of the nation's most important newspapers, criticizing the news media for its coverage of violence, has called for a federal commission study of the news industry.

In testimony before the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence, Norman Isaacs, executive editor of the Louisville, Ky., Courier-Journal, said "We need more responsible restraint in coverage of crime and violence."

"I would like to see a federal commission study the role and behavior of all news media," Isaacs said.

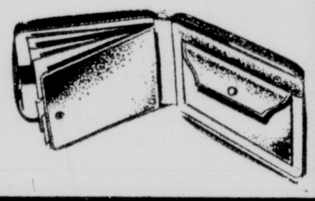

Isaacs also told the commission, appointed by President Johnson, that television networks "would do a much better job if they were not engaged in this wild competition for the advertising buck."

He indicated this competition often causes a greater problem for TV news operations because they feel pressured into showing more and more violence to attract an audience.

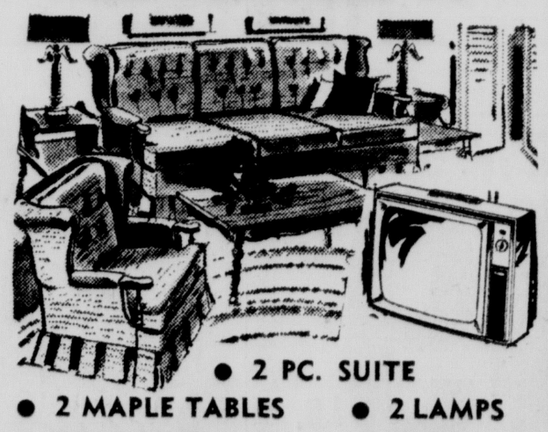

Silver now is primarily an industrial element.

Vote Expenses Listed By 3 More Candidates

With the deadline set Friday at 4 p.m., three more candidates who sought office in the Nov. 5 general election have filed the required sworn statements of campaign expenses with the County Election Board.

A committee which supported Douglas Applegate, Steubenville Democrat, for the state senate reported expenses of $2,585.53. The report was filed by Jacob Entinger, chairman.

Lew Sowards of near Lisbon, an unsuccessful Democratic candidate for county commissioner, said he spent $777.42. Mrs. Virginia Shipley of Salem, defeated Republican candidate for county treasurer, listed $478.09 in expenditures.

The Election Board said all successful candidates had reported by today and reports also were on file from all except one of the defeated candidates.

43-Vote Error Found In Recount At Beaver

BEAVER — A 43 vote error favoring Rep. Robert O. Davis of the 13th Legislative District was found today by a special recount board in Beaver County.

Davis, the incumbent, was apparently defeated at the general election by Frank Springer of Beaver Falls, a Democrat.

Several absentee ballots were challenged and both candidates filed for recounts in certain precincts.

William Smith, director of elections, said the error was made in Precinct 1 of Patterson Township. Five other ballot boxes are to be opened and recounted.

This is the only major error found to date and could give Davis another term. The official count certified to the state shows Springer the winner.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Ernest P. Kline says he plans to introduce a bill next session of the legislature to postpone the primary election from May to September.

"This will take the pressure off the courts on magisterial redistricting," Kline said in announcing his intention on Wednesday.

The Beaver County lawmaker explained that a May primary would give members of the minor judiciary little time to file for office following the judicial realignment.

The legislature also faces an early deadline to implement recent changes in the constitution concerning community courts and a new Commonwealth Court, for which judges must be elected.

"We could try a September primary at least for one year," Kline said, adding that it could be kept permanently for all but presidential elections if it worked out well.

Man's Defense Left Up To Firm

LISBON — Educator and Executive Insurers, Inc., will have to defend a Salem man involved in a traffic accident while driving the car of an Alliance car salesman insured by the Columbus firm.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard issued the order Tuesday after a Common Pleas Court jury decided that Michael A. Foreman of 621 Euclid Ave. had the permission of Carl Mathias to drive Mathias' car at the time of the accident.

The insurance company filed the action for a declaratory judgment, naming as defendants Foreman and Charnelle K. Shinn of Lisbon RD 2.

Earlier, Miss Shinn sued Mathias and Foreman for damages for injuries received Nov. 2, 1964, when the car driven by Foreman struck her auto from behind on Route 30 east of Lisbon.

Nine of the 12 jurors answered "yes" to the question "Was defendant Foreman, at the time of the accident, driving or using Mathias' car with the permission of the owner, Mr. Mathias?"

On the jury were Leona Diddle, Rose White, Kathleen Wolfe, Anna H. Waite, Kathy C. Birch, Jean Gerace and Grace Hadgett, East Liverpool; Loma Conn, Lisbon; Melvin G. Welling, Leetonia; Eileen Dowd, Columbiana; Ruth Greenwood and Gustave Schuster, Salem.

Drive-in theaters account for about 25 per cent of the total movie attendance in the United States, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Editor Proposes Federal Study Of News Media

WASHINGTON (AP) — An executive of one of the nation's most important newspapers, criticizing the news media for its coverage of violence, has called for a federal commission study of the news industry.

In testimony before the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence, Norman Isaacs, executive editor of the Louisville, Ky., Courier-Journal, said "We need more responsible restraint in coverage of crime and violence."

"I would like to see a federal commission study the role and behavior of all news media," Isaacs said.

Isaacs also told the commission, appointed by President Johnson, that television networks "would do a much better job if they were not engaged in this wild competition for the advertising buck."

He indicated this competition often causes a greater problem for TV news operations because they feel pressured into showing more and more violence to attract an audience.

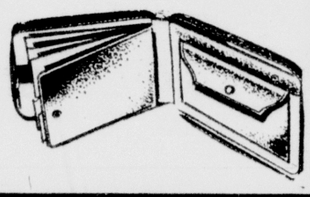

Silver now is primarily an industrial element.

William Grover Pugh of Thompson Pl. was cited by Patrolmen Charles Coen, William F. Copestick and Dwight Garvey following the mishap at 5:58 which damaged the entire right side of Pugh's 1961 auto and the left front of a 1966 two-door owned by George M. Bock, also of Thompson Pl.

$100,000 Asked In Injury Case

LISBON — William D. Smith, 21, of 703 Wood St., Wellsville, filed a $100,000 lawsuit Wednesday in Common Pleas Court for injuries received Nov. 16, 1965, in a car-truck collision on Route 7, just north of Wellsville.

The defendants are William Jennings Lay of Lake City, Tenn., driver of the tractor-trailer, and A. J. Metler Hauling and Rigging, Inc., Knoxville, Tenn., owner of the outfit.

Smith says he was a passenger of Jerry Arnette, who was following the truck south, and that the truck, without signal, made a right turn from the left-hand lane of the divided four-lane highway. The car struck the right rear portion of the trailer.

2 School Buses Flip, None Hurt Seriously

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Two school buses overturned Wednesday in separate accidents near here. There were no serious injuries.

Both Greene County mishaps were caused by slippery roads, according to police.

A Xenia school bus driven by Evelyn Bean, 31, overturned and landed in a ditch. No children were hurt although Mrs. Bean received slight injuries. The other bus was from nearby Beavercreek Township and skidded on another road.

Kline Will Ask Primary Delay Until September

HARRISBURG (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Ernest P. Kline says he plans to introduce a bill next session of the legislature to postpone the primary election from May to September.

"This will take the pressure off the courts on magisterial redistricting," Kline said in announcing his intention on Wednesday.

The Beaver County lawmaker explained that a May primary would give members of the minor judiciary little time to file for office following the judicial realignment.

The legislature also faces an early deadline to implement recent changes in the constitution concerning community courts and a new Commonwealth Court, for which judges must be elected.

"We could try a September primary at least for one year," Kline said, adding that it could be kept permanently for all but presidential elections if it worked out well.

Man's Defense Left Up To Firm

LISBON — Educator and Executive Insurers, Inc., will have to defend a Salem man involved in a traffic accident while driving the car of an Alliance car salesman insured by the Columbus firm.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard issued the order Tuesday after a Common Pleas Court jury decided that Michael A. Foreman of 621 Euclid Ave. had the permission of Carl Mathias to drive Mathias' car at the time of the accident.

The insurance company filed the action for a declaratory judgment, naming as defendants Foreman and Charnelle K. Shinn of Lisbon RD 2.

Earlier, Miss Shinn sued Mathias and Foreman for damages for injuries received Nov. 2, 1964, when the car driven by Foreman struck her auto from behind on Route 30 east of Lisbon.

Nine of the 12 jurors answered "yes" to the question "Was defendant Foreman, at the time of the accident, driving or using Mathias' car with the permission of the owner, Mr. Mathias?"

On the jury were Leona Diddle, Rose White, Kathleen Wolfe, Anna H. Waite, Kathy C. Birch, Jean Gerace and Grace Hadgett, East Liverpool; Loma Conn, Lisbon; Melvin G. Welling, Leetonia; Eileen Dowd, Columbiana; Ruth Greenwood and Gustave Schuster, Salem.

Drive-in theaters account for about 25 per cent of the total movie attendance in the United States, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Wellsville Post Makes Appeal In 'Gifts For Yanks'

William Boyce, chairman, appealed for donations to the "Gifts for Yanks" program when American Legion Post 70 met Monday night at Wellsville.

He said the project is lagging behind previous years.

Tom Enochs, service officer, reported he had serviced two requests for veteran information and one request for a headstone.

It was announced that J. P. Hone, department adjutant, will be guest speaker during the 50th anniversary dinner April 19. Dave Byers, reporting for the entertainment committee, reminded members of the children's Christmas party Sunday.

The Country Swingers will play for round and square dancing Saturday from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. There will be a charge of two cans of canned foods or a cash donation. Proceeds will be used by the Auxiliary for Christmas baskets for the needy.

A donation to the Auxiliary project was authorized.

Authorization was granted the Bar Committee to purchase a new ice machine. Bids will be received at the post home until Dec. 27, Kenneth Hoover, commander, said.

The next meeting will be Dec. 30 at 8 p. m.

Officers Cite Man In Crash

A 42-year-old man was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol early Wednesday night after his auto collided with a parked car in Thompson Pl.

William Grover Pugh of Thompson Pl. was cited by Patrolmen Charles Coen, William F. Copestick and Dwight Garvey following the mishap at 5:58 which damaged the entire right side of Pugh's 1961 auto and the left front of a 1966 two-door owned by George M. Bock, also of Thompson Pl.

Witnesses told police they saw Pugh's auto strike Bock's car on Thompson Pl. at E. 3rd St. Pugh then continued into Thompson Pl., the witnesses said. Arrested about five minutes later, Pugh denied any knowledge of the mishap, police reported.

A cab driver was cited on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle after a collision on Lisbon St. 150 feet north of W. 8th St. Wednesday at 6:59 p.m. that damaged the front of his cab and the rear of a 1963 sedan, officers said.

The charge was placed against Roy Coleman, 27, of Chester RD 1, operator of the taxi owned by the Yellow Cab Co., Inc., after it struck the halted auto of Harry Steinmetz, 50, of 1839 Lisbon St. Coleman told officers his brakes failed as he attempted to halt.

A skidding car knocked down a gate on a Waterloo St. property Wednesday at 12:14 p.m.

A 1964 two-door sedan operated by Earl Ralph Joy of 1018 St. Clair Ave. skidded on snow and hit the gate on the property of Charles Higgins of 1043 Waterloo St., officers said. There was slight damage to the auto.

$100,000 Asked In Injury Case

LISBON — William D. Smith, 21, of 703 Wood St., Wellsville, filed a $100,000 lawsuit Wednesday in Common Pleas Court for injuries received Nov. 16, 1965, in a car-truck collision on Route 7, just north of Wellsville.

The defendants are William Jennings Lay of Lake City, Tenn., driver of the tractor-trailer, and A. J. Metler Hauling and Rigging, Inc., Knoxville, Tenn., owner of the outfit.

Smith says he was a passenger of Jerry Arnette, who was following the truck south, and that the truck, without signal, made a right turn from the left-hand lane of the divided four-lane highway. The car struck the right rear portion of the trailer.

Some Pleasant Recollections

Remembering Yesterday

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Memory is man's best companion.

The richest man is he who has the most and pleasantest memories. Your own collection is pretty extensive if you can look back and remember when—

Cigarettes sold for 10 cents a pack, and for a dollar you could buy enough beefsteak to feed a family of five.

Boys under 17 rarely paid much attention to girls and thought they were all silly and flighty.

Butchers wore straw cuffs and straw hats while on the job.

A literal heaven and a literal hell were tremendous realities to the vast majority of people and the unsettled question as to which place they would wind up in kept them uneasy for a lifetime.

The safest mailbox where lovers could exchange their letters was a hole in a tree.

It wasn't an uncommon sight at all to see an old farm grandmother puffing contentedly on a corncob pipe as she went about her household chores.

If a man in a small town was out of work, he could usually find meat for the pot by taking up his shotgun, going out into the fields, and knocking over a few rabbits.

A girl of yesterday had enough fabric in one petticoat to provide a 10-year supply of today's miniskirts.

The world of dogs and small boys was in perfect balance—there seemed to be a dog for every boy in America, and as long as he had that dog he was never too lonely.

At Christmas, every family had a real live tree with honest green needles—not counterfeit trees of chill plastic.

The most popular man in any neighborhood was the friendly iceman who let the kids clamber in back of his truck or wagon and pick up cool ice chips from the wooden flooring.

Father's finest hour of the week came after Sunday dinner when he stretched out and took a long nap, and woe to anyone who interrupted his slumber. Uusually he slept, in summer at least, with a section of the Sunday newspaper over his face to keep away pestering flies.

Movie houses featured serial thrillers on Saturday afternoons, and children wondered how they could endure a full week of agony before they'd find out how Eddie Polo, Pearl White or Ruth Roland would manage to escape from peril in the next chapter.

America was still the land of wide open spaces, and even in big cities there were more parking places than there were cars.

You could get a big-sized candy bar for a nickel and a double-dip ice cream soda for 15 cents.

Mohawk Indians Take Defeat In Treaty Dispute

MASSENA, N.Y. (AP) — A band of Mohawk Indians held off Canadian police for about two hours Wednesday before taking a defeat. Still unresolved, however, was a dispute over a treaty made in 1794.

"There will be no blockage Thursday," Ernest Benedict, the craggy-faced, black-haired chief of the Indians on Cornwall Island said after a demonstration at the international bridge on the island left 48 of his tribesmen in jail.

The Indians, members of the St. Regis Reservation that is bi sected by the Canadian-American border, are angered because they say they are being forced to pay Canadian duties traveling on the bridge to and from the American and Canadian sections of the reservation.

This, they say, is a violation of the Jay Treaty of 1794, a treaty engineered by John Jay, chief justice of the United States and signed by the United States and Canada.

The treaty guaranteed the Mohawks the right to travel unhampered between both countries.

Couple Found Dead

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — James Wilcox, 26, and Jessie Stafford, 26, were found dead in a garage on Lenacrave Avenue Wednesday, both apparently killed by carbon monoxide fumes.

Pittsburgh Flooded With Bogus Money

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The U.S. Secret Service says the Pittsburgh area has been flooded with some $30,000 worth of phony $20 bills over the past two months.

The Secret Service also reported Wednesday that the counterfeiting operation has spread throughout Western Pennsylvania.

Hope, Troupe Stage Show For GIs In Korea

SEOUL (AP) — Comedian Bob Hope and his troupe, split into four groups, put on six shows today for a total of 12,000 troops just south of the Korean demilitarized zone north of the Imin River.

Hope, ferrying aboard a helicopter, appeared briefly at four different shows at the U.S. 2nd Infantry Division's forward posts and positions and made two extra unscheduled stops.

One of the four groups was led by actress Ann-Margret and had five members of the 12-girl Golddigers song and dance group.

Enthusiastic soldier-fans greeted the group with huge "Hello Ann-Margret" signs and applauded and cheered the actress and other mini-skirted beauties.

Final college football statistics from the NCAA (college grid statistics do not include bowl games) show that University of Cincinnati players took two individual titles and were close in four others.

The Bearcats had the top gainer in total offense in Greg Cook, who amassed 3,210 yards; and the top scorer in Jim O'Brian, who tallied 142 points — 70 by kicking. O'Brien was second in scoring by kicking, seven points behind Paul Ray Powell of Arizona St., while Cook was second in passing, 46 completions behind Chuck Hixson of SMU.

Benny Rhoads was second in punting, with his 42.5 yard average, 7 yards behind Danny Pitcock of Wichita; and Tom Rossley was third in pass receiving, six catches behind Ron Sellers of Florida St.

In total offense, Cleve Bryant of Ohio U. was ninth, Mike Sherwood of West Virginia 16th, Dave Havern of Pitt 24th and Jerry Buckmaster of Xavier 31st. In passing, Sherwood was 11th, Havern 15th and Buckmaster 37th. In receiving, Oscar Patrick of West Virginia was 20th, Skip Orszulak of Pitt 21st, Eddie Johns of Bowling Green 24th, Bob Zimpfer of Bowling Green 26th and Dick Barhorst of Xavier 28th.

IN PUNTING, Al Ippolito of Xavier was 11th, Martin Williams of Marshall 15th, Joe Spicko of Pitt 22nd, Larry Cella of Kent St. 28th and Roland Moss of Toledo 36th. In kick-scoring, Ken Crots of Toledo was 10th, Bill Pataki of Ohio U. tied for 14th, Ken Juskowich of West Virginia 25th and Rusty Garthwaite of Penn St. tied for 27th.

O. J. Simpson, of course, was the top rusher, while Ron (Po) James of New Brighton and New Mexico St. was eighth, Moss 11th, Bernie Kress of Dayton 17th, Charlie Pittman of Penn St. 20th, Jim Otis of Ohio St. 24th and Dave LeVeck of Ohio U. 29th. Following O'Brien in scoring were Bob Houmard of Ohio U. fifth, Otis tied for eighth, Pittman and Moss tied for 13th and Kress 25th.

Zimpfer was ninth in punt returns, J. D. Lewis of Pitt third in kickoff returns, and Neal Smith of Penn St. 13th in interceptions.

In the team statistics, some little-known categories were captured by Ohio teams. Ohio U. was tops in pass interception avoidance, with only 2.4 per cent pilfered; and also led in punt return defense, allowing only 2.8 yards a return. West Virginia was second and Toledo fourth in the latter category; Miami tied for fifth in the former.

DAYTON LOST the fewest fumbles, only two all season. Kent State led the country in pass defense, but Toledo was second, Western Michigan third, Bowling Green ninth and Marshall 12th, proving only, that except for OU's Bryant, there is no passing in the Mid-American Conference. West Virginia was seventh and Xavier 10th in this category.

Cincinnati led in passing, with WVU 13th. Ohio State was fifth in total offense, Cincinnati eighth, Ohio U. 16th and Penn St. 19th. OSU was third in rushing, PSU 10th, Miami 13th and Ohio U. 14th. The Bobcats were fifth in scoring, the Nittany Lions eighth and the Buckeyes 10th. Miami was second and Penn St. sixth in scoring defense.

Cincinnati was second in most field goals, and was the third most penalized team. The Bearcats were fifth in punting Xavier ninth. Penn St. was fifth in interceptions, Toledo second in kickoff returns and West Virginia sixth in kickoff return defense.

Miami was second in total defense, Bowling Green ninth, Penn St. 16th and W. Virginia 21st. Miami was also second in rushing defense, Penn St. sixth, Ohio St. 16th and Bowling Green 22nd.

So overall, it was a banner year statistically, but having the only three unbeaten-untied major colleges in the nation (Ohio St., Penn St. and Ohio U.) located in this area helped.

Both Opponents Have 3-1 Marks

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

"This is the toughest week of our schedule" says Potter basketball coach Clint McConnell, referring to weekend road dates with Aliquippa and Cambridge.

The Potters are 3-0, and both opponents 3-1.

Some of the lustre was taken from Aliquippa's image when the Indians fell 87-59 at Penn Hills Tuesday night, but the "Quips" have recorded victories over Duquesne 82-70, Gateway 70-40 and McKeesport 83-45. Many Western Pennsylvania fans consider the 'Quips to have the best material in the state. Farrell coach Eddie McCluskey says "If we don't beat them, Aliquippa should win the state title".

Last year the Potters grabbed a 57-49 victory in the M. A. Charles Pipkin, the 'Quips' high scorer in that game, has graduated, but coach Frank Janosik has everyone else back.

Top scorer is 6-6 Dwight Kenner who has hit 31 twice this season. John Thomas, 6-5, and Bruce Oxendine, 6-3, complete the front line. Jesse Stewart, 6-2, and John Marzlak, 6-0, from the backcourt, with Bob Adamson and Bob Sellari the top reserves. Thomas and Stewart, along with Kenner, are the top scorers. Marzlak and Oxendine missed the Penn Hills game with the flu.

Cambridge was thumped 62-36 by Zanesville in its opener, but since then has dumped Carrollton 61-56, Marietta 67-58 and Meadowbrook 67-61 in overtime.

Cambridge has all lettermen senior starters. The high scorer is 6-1 forward Ken Davis, a transfer from Columbus East, at 14.0 a game. Chuck Gaskill, a 6-6 center, is itting 10.7, and 6-2 guard Tom Weisenstine is averaging 10.2. Tony Lenhart, 5-10, is the other guard, and Mark Loper, 6-2, is the other forward. Chuck Cowgill, 6-2, is the top reserve.

Cambridge went 13-8 in 1967-68 and is coached by Paul Kegley.

The Potters showed improvement last weekend over the season opener, but McConnell notes that they will have to be at their very best against this week's foes. Center Jerry Christian will have his hands full with pivotmen taller than he is, and the Potters will give away height to both teams. John Johnson and Rick Steffen will be the forwards and Dan Cunningham and Bill Montgomery the guards.

In Small College Poll

Youngstown Up To 8th, Tri-State Has 8 Of Top 16

By The Associated Press

Kentucky Wesleyan has almost doubled its lead today over runner-up Central State of Ohio in the latest Associated Press' small-college basketball poll after tacking two more victories onto its unbeaten record.

The Panthers, winners over Arkansas State and Southwest Missouri State last week for a 5-0 mark, drew 12 first-place votes and 268 points in the balloting by a national panel of 14 sports writers and broadcasters.

The Owensboro, Ky., team's lead is 62 points compared to 33 last week. Central State collected two votes for the top position and 206 points in the latest vote based on games through last Saturday. Central State was idle last week.

Trinity, Tex., and Ashland, Ohio, traded places, Trinity rising to third after winning three games last week. Fairmont, W.Va., climbed four positions to fifth. Long Beach State, Cheyney State, Youngstown, Stephen F. Austin and Gannon, Pa., round out the Top Ten in that order.

Stephen F. Austin gained the most ground, advancing from a tie for 19th to the No. 9 spot. Stephen F. Austin is 6-1 after beating McNeese State 92-87 in its only game last week.

South Dakota State, 4-2, is the only new team in the rankings. SD State moved into 19th place. Winston–Salem State and Westminster, Pa., who were tied for ranking positions a week ago, dropped out of the Top 20.

Colts' Shula Named NFL Coach Of Year

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Shula, the boss man of the Baltimore Colts, has been named Coach of the Year in the National Football League by the overwhelming vote of a 48-man panel for The Associated Press.

A committee composed of three sports writers or sportscasters from each of the league's 16 cities gave Shula 31 votes.

Jim Dooley, who did such an outstanding job with the Chicago Bears despite a series of crippling injuries to his quarterbacks and Gale Sayers, received eight votes.

Blanton Collier, whose Cleveland Browns will meet Dallas for the Eastern Conference title Saturday at Cleveland, drew six votes. Tom Landry, Dallas coach, got one vote. Two members of the panel did not vote in this category.

Shula shared the coach of the year honors with George Allen of Los Angeles last year and won it all alone in 1964, the year his Colts were knocked off by Cleveland in the title game.

The 38-year-old Baltimore coach has compiled an enviable record of 63-18-3 in his six seasons as head man of the Colts. A hard-nosed defensive back who spent seven years in the NFL, Shula was an assistant coach at Virginia and Kentucky before he went into the pros as a defensive coach at Detroit in 1960.

Despite his fine winning record at Baltimore, Shula's career has been marred by many heartbreaking setbacks. The Colts were the beaten favorites in Cleveland 27-0 in the 1964 title game and lost a sudden death tie playoff at Green Bay 13-10 for the Western Conference championship in 1965.

In 1967, they were unbeaten until the last game of the season when a 34-10 defeat in Los Angeles knocked them out of a shot at all the post season money.

Succeeds Unitas

Earl Morrall Named NFL Player Of Year

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Earl Morrall, obtained in a trade as a backup quarterback for John Unitas, played the role to the hilt during the 1968 National Football League season.

Morrall not only replaced the ailing Unitas as the Baltimore Colts' quarterback, he also succeeded Unitas as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in the annual Associated Press poll.

The 34-year-old Morrall, playing for his fifth NFL team, accepted the honor Wednesday about as unobtrusively as he took over as Baltimore's No. 1 signal caller.

"This is certainly the biggest personal honor I've ever received," he said quietly. Then came a gross understatement:

"Never in my wildest dreams did I think anything like this would develop at the time of the trade."

The Colts picked up their gem at bargain basement rates—swapping reserve tight end Butch Wilson to the New York Giants during the exhibition season.

At the time, Unitas was bothered by his chronic elbow tendonitis but performing capably. An injury to reserve quarterback Jim Ward actually spurred the Colts to make the deal.

But Unitas tore a muscle in his elbow in the final preseason game and, suddenly, Morrall was No. 1.

In his 13th season, Morrall wound up as the league's top passer under the NFL's complicated grading system—about the only passing honor which has eluded Unitas during a distinguished career.

Morrall completed 182 of 317 passes for 2,909 yards and 26 touchdowns while leading Baltimore to a 13-1 record, the Coastal Division championship, and Sunday's Western Conference title game against the Minnesota Vikings.

Morrall, who also was named the NFL All-Star quarterback, received 33 votes in the balloting by a panel of 48 writers and sportscasters from the 16 league cities.

Leroy Kelly, the Cleveland running back who won the NFL rushing title, was a distant second with five votes, followed by Cleveland quarterback Bill Nelsen, who received four.

There was one vote each for John Mackey, Baltimore tight end; Dick Butkus, Chicago middle linebacker; Bob Lilly, Dallas defensive tackle, and Gale Sayers, Chicago running back.

Potters Picked To Split, Aliquippa Choice By 4-3

There will be some shuffling in the ranks of the Review Cage Yogis after this week's action, as the predictions are scattered.

Ed Clutter, despite being off to a good start, has dropped out of the race. Leader Bob Duffy is alone in taking Western Beaver over Beaver Local, and pairs with Pete Weaver in taking Leetonia over Poland.

Weaver is alone in taking Cambridge over East Liverpool, but a slim 4-3 majority of the Yogis forecast the Potters will lose Friday night. Chuck Campbell, Lorin Howard and Bob Shaffer stick with East Liverpool over Aliquippa.

This same trio goes with East Palestine over Lisbon. Rose Nuzzo is alone in tabbing North Jackson over Leetonia, but the other games are all unanimous.

Everyone likes Morgantown over Oak Glen, Midland over Burgettstown, United over Western Reserve and Lisbon over Southern. Turk Pierce is with the consensus in every case.

LSU Surprises Florida, Maravich Scores 45 Points

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

What happens when the top collegiate basketball scorer meets the top rebounder? The high scorer wins—in this case at least.

Which is to say that Pistol Pete Maravich of Louisiana State led the Tigers to an upset ovetrime 93-89 victory over Neal Walk and Florida at Baton Rouge Wednesday night.

The 6-foot-5 Maravich threw in 45 points, including six in the extra period, to overcome the 34 points and 14 rebounds by the 6-10 Walk.

Maravich, who now has 195 points in four games in defense of his national scoring crown, got an assist when Walk fouled out with four minutes left in regulation time.

"If you had been in there, it would have been all the difference," said Maravich to Walk afterwards. Walk questioned the fifth personal foul called on him, for charging into 5-8 Rich Lupcho.

"That little fellow got under me," Walk said. "I don't think it should have been a foul."

Maravich collected his 45 points on 17 of 32 shots from the field and on 11 of 15 free throws. In addition, he handed out five assists. Before he fouled out, Walk hit on 14 of 27 field goal tries and on six of 10 from the charity line.

Florida overcame an early 13-point LSU lead to tie the regulation game at 83-83 and took a one-point edge in the OT. A layup by Maravich with three minutes left put LSU ahead for good at 87-86.

Pistol Pete's heroics overshadowed the 71-70 come-from-behind victory sixth-ranked Cincinnati scored over 15th-ranked California at Berkeley. Two free throws by Rick Roberson with 17 seconds left pulled it out for the Bearcats.

Lasalle, No. 16 in the Associated Press rankings, also came from behind to down Canisius at Philadelphia 68-56. Western Kentucky, No. 18, was beaten on the road by Butler 67-65 while 19th-ranked Louisville edged Memphis State at home 67-66 on Mary Selvy's basket in the last second.

All dual matches for December, scheduled with Carrollton, Alliance, Warren Harding and Dover, have been cancelled. The team has not practiced since Nov. 25, when coach Joe Mowad submitted his resignation as coach.

Baseball Considering Commissioner

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Deciding against a waiting game, baseball's major league owners meet Friday to consider a commissioner to succeed William D. Eckert who resigned just 13 days ago.

Eckert, 60, resigned Dec. 6 in a stunning windup of the majors' winter meeting. The action, reportedly taken at the direction of club owners meeting in executive session, ended a criticized three-year regime.

The need for a baseball man seems the rallying cry in the owners' move to install the game's fifth czar as quickly as possible in the face of growing problems, such as a threatened player strike next spring.

Boomed as a prime candidate, at least in the past, is Mike Burke, who became a director of the New York Yankees four years ago when the Columbia Broadcasting system bought the club and then ascended to Yankee presidency in 1966.

Other potential candidates, more steeped in baseball than Burke, include Judge Robert Cannon of Millwaukee, knowledgable on both sides of the player-owner fence; Chub Feeney, vice president of the San Francisco Giants; Joe Cronin, president of the American League, and general managers Lee MacPhail of the Yankees and Bing Devine of the St. Louis Cardinals.

A National-American League cleavage could develop as the owners size up the best candidate. One of the things that irked the NL about Eckert was the commissioner's failure to veto the AL's gun-jumping a year ago in expanding to 12 clubs in 1969.

Southern Freshmen Win First Game

The Southern Local freshman basketball team won its first game yesterday after five losses, trouncing Springfield 51-39 at Springfield.

The winners trailed 24-21 at halftime but broke loose in the second half. Southern hit 15 of 23 free throws to a mere 1 of 10 for the losers.

Jim Randolph scored 18 points and Jim Crews 12 for Southern. Kevin Croskey paced Springfield with 19.

Some Pleasant Recollections

Remembering Yesterday

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Memory is man's best companion.

The richest man is he who has the most and pleasantest memories. Your own collection is pretty extensive if you can look back and remember when—

Cigarettes sold for 10 cents a pack, and for a dollar you could buy enough beefsteak to feed a family of five.

Boys under 17 rarely paid much attention to girls and thought they were all silly and flighty.

Butchers wore straw cuffs and straw hats while on the job.

A literal heaven and a literal hell were tremendous realities to the vast majority of people and the unsettled question as to which place they would wind up in kept them uneasy for a lifetime.

The safest mailbox where lovers could exchange their letters was a hole in a tree.

It wasn't an uncommon sight at all to see an old farm grandmother puffing contentedly on a corncob pipe as she went about her household chores.

If a man in a small town was out of work, he could usually find meat for the pot by taking up his shotgun, going out into the fields, and knocking over a few rabbits.

A girl of yesterday had enough fabric in one petticoat to provide a 10-year supply of today's miniskirts.

The world of dogs and small boys was in perfect balance—there seemed to be a dog for every boy in America, and as long as he had that dog he was never too lonely.

At Christmas, every family had a real live tree with honest green needles—not counterfeit trees of chill plastic.

The most popular man in any neighborhood was the friendly iceman who let the kids clamber in back of his truck or wagon and pick up cool ice chips from the wooden flooring.

Father's finest hour of the week came after Sunday dinner when he stretched out and took a long nap, and woe to anyone who interrupted his slumber. Uusually he slept, in summer at least, with a section of the Sunday newspaper over his face to keep away pestering flies.

Movie houses featured serial thrillers on Saturday afternoons, and children wondered how they could endure a full week of agony before they'd find out how Eddie Polo, Pearl White or Ruth Roland would manage to escape from peril in the next chapter.

America was still the land of wide open spaces, and even in big cities there were more parking places than there were cars.

You could get a big-sized candy bar for a nickel and a double-dip ice cream soda for 15 cents.

Mohawk Indians Take Defeat In Treaty Dispute

MASSENA, N.Y. (AP) — A band of Mohawk Indians held off Canadian police for about two hours Wednesday before taking a defeat. Still unresolved, however, was a dispute over a treaty made in 1794.

"There will be no blockage Thursday," Ernest Benedict, the craggy-faced, black-haired chief of the Indians on Cornwall Island said after a demonstration at the international bridge on the island left 48 of his tribesmen in jail.

The Indians, members of the St. Regis Reservation that is bisected by the Canadian-American border, are angered because they say they are being forced to pay Canadian duties traveling on the bridge to and from the American and Canadian sections of the reservation.

This, they say, is a violation of the Jay Treaty of 1794, a treaty engineered by John Jay, chief justice of the United States and signed by the United States and Canada.

The treaty guaranteed the Mohawks the right to travel unhampered between both countries.

Couple Found Dead

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — James Wilcox, 26, and Jessie Stafford, 26, were found dead in a garage on Lenacrave Avenue Wednesday, both apparently killed by carbon monoxide fumes.

Pittsburgh Flooded With Bogus Money

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The U.S. Secret Service says the Pittsburgh area has been flooded with some $30,000 worth of phony $20 bills over the past two months.

The Secret Service also reported Wednesday that the counterfeiting operation has spread throughout Western Pennsylvania.

76ers Keep Pace

Bullets Top Warriors, Keep NBA East Lead

By The Associated Press

The Baltimore Bullets have discovered the secret for keeping atop of things in the National Basketball Association's torrid Eastern Division race—don't lose. It's about the only way.

The Bullets rode some timely late shooting by Kevin Loughery to their sixth straight victory Wednesday night—a 109-100 conquest of San Francisco.

Since runner-up Philadelphia whipped Seattle 115-111, the Bullets needed the triumph to preserve their precarious one game edge over the 76ers.

In other games, Detroit survived a 40-point shelling by rookie Elvin Hayes for a 124-112 victory over San Diego, New York turned back Boston 104-98, Atlanta stopped Milwukee 122-116 and Phoenix defeated Cincinnati 123-114.

The Bullets had only an 80-76 lead after three quarters against the crippled Warriors, but then Loughery scored 10 of his 26 points to put it away.

Teammate Gus Johnson contributed 21 points and 23 rebounds—15 in the final half—and Wes Unseld had 26 rebounds and 15 points to offset a 30-point showing by San Francisco's Jeff Mullins.

The Warriors, suffering their eighth loss in nine games, played without star Nate Thurmond and Clyde Lee.

Philadelphia, in extending its mastery over Seattle, staved off a last-ditch rally by the Super Sonics and whipped them for the 10th consecutive time. The Sonics, who came into the league last season as an expansion club, never have beaten the 76ers.

Philadelphia led 60-58 at halftime, and then pulled in front 101-85 early in the fourth period before the Sonics launched their spirited comeback.

Seattle closed within 112-111 with 61 seconds to go on a basket by Lenny Wilkens only to have the 76ers score the final three points.

The Sonics' Bob Rule garnered scoring laurels with 36 points and Chet Walker provided most of Philadelphia's punch with 30.

Phoenix reeled off the first nine points and was never headed after that in preventing Cincinnati from capitalizing on Boston's loss and moving into third place in the Eastern Division.

Gail Goodrich, who finished with 34, scored 15 points in the opening quarter to help stake the Suns to the early lead. Then, after being blanked in the second quarter, he came up with 17 in the third session to thwart a Royals' rally.

Jerry Lucas topped Cincinnati with 24 points, Oscar Robertson had 23 and Connie Dkerking 22.

Atlanta shook off a late Milwaukee rally for its sixth straight victory to move to within 4½ games of idle Los Angeles in the Western Division.

The Bucks, down by as many as 16 points in the third quarter, moved to within three points before Joe Caldwell and Zelmo Beaty keyed the Hawks' final period comeback.

Beaty finished with 27 points. Len Chappell and Jon McGlocklin each had 23 for the Bucks.

Detroit's triumph over the Rockets not only broke an eight-game losing streak, but also gave the Pistons their first victory since Paul Seymour took over as coach seven games ago.

Hayes, who also picked up 19 rebounds, had his production offset by a well-balanced Piston attack, topped by Jimmy Walker and Happy Hairston with 27 each.

The Rockets led 57-54 at the half before Walker dumped in 11 and Dave Bing nine in a third quarter spree that lifted the Pistons to an 81-78 lead. San Diego, which lost its fourth straight, managed to tie it in the final quarter, but then Detroit took control again.

New York rolled to a 64-48 halftime edge, then withstood a rally to hand the Celtics their third straight loss.

Boston slowly revived during the third quarter and tied it 71-71 on Don Nelson's hook. But Walt Bellamy, who scored 18 points, countered with six in a two-minute span to trigger the Knicks to an 82-78 lead.

The Celtics trimmed the lead to 99-97 late in the game before Walt Frazier and Dick Barnett each hit a pair of free throws to ensure New York's victory.

Barnett and Willis Reed each scored 24, while Bailey Howell had 32 for the Celtics.

Hope, Troupe Stage Show For GIs In Korea

SEOUL (AP) — Comedian Bob Hope and his troupe, split into four groups, put on six shows today for a total of 12,000 troops just south of the Korean demilitarized zone north of the Imin River.

Hope, ferrying aboard a helicopter, appeared briefly at four different shows at the U.S. 2nd Infantry Division's forward posts and positions and made two extra unscheduled stops.

One of the four groups was led by actress Ann-Margret and had five members of the 12-girl Golddigers song and dance group.

Enthusiastic soldier-fans greeted the group with huge "Hello Ann-Margret" signs and applauded and cheered the actress and other mini-skirted beauties.

Potters Travel To Aliquippa, Cambridge Over Weekend

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Final college football statistics from the NCAA (college grid statistics do not include bowl games) show that University of Cincinnati players took two individual titles and were close in four others.

The Bearcats had the top gainer in total offense in Greg Cook, who amassed 3,210 yards; and the top scorer in Jim O'Brian, who tallied 142 points — 70 by kicking. O'Brien was second in scoring by kicking, seven points behind Paul Ray Powell of Arizona St., while Cook was second in passing, 46 completions behind Chuck Hixson of SMU.

Benny Rhoads was second in punting, with his 42.5 yard average, 7 yards behind Danny Pitcock of Wichita; and Tom Rossley was third in pass receiving, six catches behind Ron Sellers of Florida St.

In total offense, Cleve Bryant of Ohio U. was ninth, Mike Sherwood of West Virginia 16th, Dave Havern of Pitt 24th and Jerry Buckmaster of Xavier 31st. In passing, Sherwood was 11th, Havern 15th and Buckmaster 37th. In receiving, Oscar Patrick of West Virginia was 20th, Skip Orszulak of Pitt 21st, Eddie Johns of Bowling Green 24th, Bob Zimpfer of Bowling Green 26th and Dick Barhorst of Xavier 28th.

IN PUNTING, Al Ippolito of Xavier was 11th, Martin Williams of Marshall 15th, Joe Spicko of Pitt 22nd, Larry Cella of Kent St. 28th and Roland Moss of Toledo 36th. In kick-scoring, Ken Crots of Toledo was 10th, Bill Pataki of Ohio U. tied for 14th, Ken Juskowich of West Virginia 25th and Rusty Garthwaite of Penn St. tied for 27th.

O. J. Simpson, of course, was the top rusher, while Ron (Po) James of New Brighton and New Mexico St. was eighth, Moss 11th, Bernie Kress of Dayton 17th, Charlie Pittman of Penn St. 20th, Jim Otis of Ohio St. 24th and Dave LeVeck of Ohio U. 29th. Following O'Brien in scoring were Bob Houmard of Ohio U. fifth, Otis tied for eighth, Pittman and Moss tied for 13th and Kress 25th.

Zimpfer was ninth in punt returns, J. D. Lewis of Pitt third in kickoff returns, and Neal Smith of Penn St. 13th in interceptions.

In the team statistics, some little-known categories were captured by Ohio teams. Ohio U. was tops in pass interception avoidance, with only 2.4 per cent pilfered; and also led in punt return defense, allowing only 2.8 yards a return. West Virginia was second and Toledo fourth in the latter category; Miami tied for fifth in the former.

DAYTON LOST the fewest fumbles, only two all season. Kent State led the country in pass defense, but Toledo was second, Western Michigan third, Bowling Green ninth and Marshall 12th, proving only, that except for OU's Bryant, there is no passing in the Mid-American Conference. West Virginia was seventh and Xavier 10th in this category.

Cincinnati led in passing, with WVU 13th. Ohio State was fifth in total offense, Cincinnati eighth, Ohio U. 16th and Penn St. 19th. OSU was third in rushing, PSU 10th, Miami 13th and Ohio U. 14th. The Bobcats were fifth in scoring, the Nittany Lions eighth and the Buckeyes 10th. Miami was second and Penn St. sixth in scoring defense.

Cincinnati was second in most field goals, and was the third most penalized team. The Bearcats were fifth in punting Xavier ninth. Penn St. was fifth in interceptions, Toledo second in kickoff returns and West Virginia sixth in kickoff return defense.

Miami was second in total defense, Bowling Green ninth, Penn St. 16th and W. Virginia 21st. Miami was also second in rushing defense, Penn St. sixth, Ohio St. 16th and Bowling Green 22nd.

So overall, it was a banner year statistically, but having the only three unbeaten-untied major colleges in the nation (Ohio St., Penn St. and Ohio U.) located in this area helped.

Succeeds Unitas

Earl Morrall Named NFL Player Of Year

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Earl Morrall, obtained in a trade as a backup quarterback for John Unitas, played the role to the hilt during the 1968 National Football League season.

Morrall not only replaced the ailing Unitas as the Baltimore Colts' quarterback, he also succeeded Unitas as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in the annual Associated Press poll.

The 34-year-old Morrall, playing for his fifth NFL team, accepted the honor Wednesday about as unobtrusively as he took over as Baltimore's No. 1 signal caller.

"This is certainly the biggest personal honor I've ever received," he said quietly. Then came a gross understatement:

"Never in my wildest dreams did I think anything like this would develop at the time of the trade."

The Colts picked up their gem at bargain basement rates—swapping reserve tight end Butch Wilson to the New York Giants during the exhibition season.

At the time, Unitas was bothered by his chronic elbow tendonitis but performing capably. An injury to reserve quarterback Jim Ward actually spurred the Colts to make the deal.

But Unitas tore a muscle in his elbow in the final preseason game and, suddenly, Morrall was No. 1.

In his 13th season, Morrall wound up as the league's top passer under the NFL's complicated grading system—about the only passing honor which has eluded Unitas during a distinguished career.

Morrall completed 182 of 317 passes for 2,909 yards and 26 touchdowns while leading Baltimore to a 13-1 record, the Coastal Division championship, and Sunday's Western Conference title game against the Minnesota Vikings.

Morrall, who also was named the NFL All-Star quarterback, received 33 votes in the balloting by a panel of 48 writers and sportscasters from the 16 league cities.

Leroy Kelly, the Cleveland running back who won the NFL rushing title, was a distant second with five votes, followed by Cleveland quarterback Bill Nelsen, who received four.

There was one vote each for John Mackey, Baltimore tight end; Dick Butkus, Chicago middle linebacker; Bob Lilly, Dallas defensive tackle, and Gale Sayers, Chicago running back.

Both Opponents Have 3-1 Marks

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

"This is the toughest week of our schedule" says Potter basketball coach Clint McConnell, referring to weekend road dates with Aliquippa and Cambridge.

The Potters are 3-0, and both opponents 3-1.

Some of the lustre was taken from Aliquippa's image when the Indians fell 87-59 at Penn Hills Tuesday night, but the "Quips" have recorded victories over Duquesne 82-70, Gateway 70-40 and McKeesport 83-45. Many Western Pennsylvania fans consider the 'Quips to have the best material in the state. Farrell coach Eddie McCluskey says "If we don't beat them, Aliquippa should win the state title".

Last year the Potters grabbed a 57-49 victory in the M. A. Charles Pipkin, the 'Quips' high scorer in that game, has graduated, but coach Frank Janosik has everyone else back.

Top scorer is 6-6 Dwight Kenner who has hit 31 twice this season. John Thomas, 6-5, and Bruce Oxendine, 6-3, complete the front line. Jesse Stewart, 6-2, and John Marzlak, 6-0, from the backcourt, with Bob Adamson and Bob Sellari the top reserves. Thomas and Stewart, along with Kenner, are the top scorers. Marzlak and Oxendine missed the Penn Hills game with the flu.

Cambridge was thumped 62-36 by Zanesville in its opener, but since then has dumped Carrollton 61-56, Marietta 67-58 and Meadowbrook 67-61 in overtime.

Cambridge has all lettermen senior starters. The high scorer is 6-1 forward Ken Davis, a transfer from Columbus East, at 14.0 a game. Chuck Gaskill, a 6-6 center, is itting 10.7, and 6-2 guard Tom Weisenstine is averaging 10.2. Tony Lenhart, 5-10, is the other guard, and Mark Loper, 6-2, is the other forward. Chuck Cowgill, 6-2, is the top reserve.

Cambridge went 13-8 in 1967-68 and is coached by Paul Kegley.

The Potters showed improvement last weekend over the season opener, but McConnell notes that they will have to be at their very best against this week's foes. Center Jerry Christian will have his hands full with pivotmen taller than he is, and the Potters will give away height to both teams. John Johnson and Rick Steffen will be the forwards and Dan Cunningham and Bill Montgomery the guards.

In Small College Poll

Youngstown Up To 8th, Tri-State Has 8 Of Top 16

By The Associated Press

Kentucky Wesleyan has almost doubled its lead today over runner-up Central State of Ohio in the latest Associated Press' small-college basketball poll after tacking two more victories onto its unbeaten record.

The Panthers, winners over Arkansas State and Southwest Missouri State last week for a 5-0 mark, drew 12 first-place votes and 268 points in the balloting by a national panel of 14 sports writers and broadcasters.

The Owensboro, Ky., team's lead is 62 points compared to 33 last week. Central State collected two votes for the top position and 206 points in the latest vote based on games through last Saturday. Central State was idle last week.

Trinity, Tex., and Ashland, Ohio, traded places, Trinity rising to third after winning three games last week. Fairmont, W.Va., climbed four positions to fifth. Long Beach State, Cheyney State, Youngstown, Stephen F. Austin and Gannon, Pa., round out the Top Ten in that order.

Stephen F. Austin gained the most ground, advancing from a tie for 19th to the No. 9 spot. Stephen F. Austin is 6-1 after beating McNeese State 92-87 in its only game last week.

South Dakota State, 4-2, is the only new team in the rankings. SD State moved into 19th place. Winston–Salem State and Westminster, Pa., who were tied for ranking positions a week ago, dropped out of the Top 20.

Colts' Shula Named NFL Coach Of Year

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Shula, the boss man of the Baltimore Colts, has been named Coach of the Year in the National Football League by the overwhelming vote of a 48-man panel for The Associated Press.

A committee composed of three sports writers or sportscasters from each of the league's 16 cities gave Shula 31 votes.

Jim Dooley, who did such an outstanding job with the Chicago Bears despite a series of crippling injuries to his quarterbacks and Gale Sayers, received eight votes.

Blanton Collier, whose Cleveland Browns will meet Dallas for the Eastern Conference title Saturday at Cleveland, drew six votes. Tom Landry, Dallas coach, got one vote. Two members of the panel did not vote in this category.

Shula shared the coach of the year honors with George Allen of Los Angeles last year and won it all alone in 1964, the year his Colts were knocked off by Cleveland in the title game.

The 38-year-old Baltimore coach has compiled an enviable record of 63-18-3 in his six seasons as head man of the Colts. A hard-nosed defensive back who spent seven years in the NFL, Shula was an assistant coach at Virginia and Kentucky before he went into the pros as a defensive coach at Detroit in 1960.

Despite his fine winning record at Baltimore, Shula's career has been marred by many heartbreaking setbacks. The Colts were the beaten favorites in Cleveland 27-0 in the 1964 title game and lost a sudden death tie playoff at Green Bay 13-10 for the Western Conference championship in 1965.

In 1967, they were unbeaten until the last game of the season when a 34-10 defeat in Los Angeles knocked them out of a shot at all the post season money.

Potters Picked To Split, Aliquippa Choice By 4-3

There will be some shuffling in the ranks of the Review Cage Yogis after this week's action, as the predictions are scattered.

Ed Clutter, despite being off to a good start, has dropped out of the race. Leader Bob Duffy is alone in taking Western Beaver over Beaver Local, and pairs with Pete Weaver in taking Leetonia over Poland.

Weaver is alone in taking Cambridge over East Liverpool, but a slim 4-3 majority of the Yogis forecast the Potters will lose Friday night. Chuck Campbell, Lorin Howard and Bob Shaffer stick with East Liverpool over Aliquippa.

This same trio goes with East Palestine over Lisbon. Rose Nuzzo is alone in tabbing North Jackson over Leetonia, but the other games are all unanimous.

Everyone likes Morgantown over Oak Glen, Midland over Burgettstown, United over Western Reserve and Lisbon over Southern. Turk Pierce is with the consensus in every case.

LSU Surprises Florida, Maravich Scores 45 Points

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

What happens when the top collegiate basketball scorer meets the top rebounder? The high scorer wins—in this case at least.

Which is to say that Pistol Pete Maravich of Louisiana State led the Tigers to an upset ovetrime 93-89 victory over Neal Walk and Florida at Baton Rouge Wednesday night.

The 6-foot-5 Maravich threw in 45 points, including six in the extra period, to overcome the 34 points and 14 rebounds by the 6-10 Walk.

Maravich, who now has 195 points in four games in defense of his national scoring crown, got an assist when Walk fouled out with four minutes left in regulation time.

"If you had been in there, it would have been all the difference," said Maravich to Walk afterwards. Walk questioned the fifth personal foul called on him, for charging into 5-8 Rich Lupcho.

"That little fellow got under me," Walk said. "I don't think it should have been a foul."

Maravich collected his 45 points on 17 of 32 shots from the field and on 11 of 15 free throws. In addition, he handed out five assists. Before he fouled out, Walk hit on 14 of 27 field goal tries and on six of 10 from the charity line.

Florida overcame an early 13-point LSU lead to tie the regulation game at 83-83 and took a one-point edge in the OT. A layup by Maravich with three minutes left put LSU ahead for good at 87-86.

Pistol Pete's heroics overshadowed the 71-70 come-from-behind victory sixth-ranked Cincinnati scored over 15th-ranked California at Berkeley. Two free throws by Rick Roberson with 17 seconds left pulled it out for the Bearcats.

Lasalle, No. 16 in the Associated Press rankings, also came from behind to down Canisius at Philadelphia 68-56. Western Kentucky, No. 18, was beaten on the road by Butler 67-65 while 19th-ranked Louisville edged Memphis State at home 67-66 on Mary Selvy's basket in the last second.

E. Liverpool Wrestlers Weigh In

The East Liverpool High wrestling team, though still without a coach, has been officially weighed-in and will be eligible to compete in the state tournaments if wrestling is resumed later in the season.

Principal Alton Dobson weighed-in the wrestlers and sent the results to the OHSAA in Columbus, a move that must be made this time of year to make the team eligible.

All dual matches for December, scheduled with Carrollton, Alliance, Warren Harding and Dover, have been cancelled. The team has not practiced since Nov. 25, when coach Joe Mowad submitted his resignation as coach.

Baseball Considering Commissioner

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Deciding against a waiting game, baseball's major league owners meet Friday to consider a commissioner to succeed William D. Eckert who resigned just 13 days ago.

Eckert, 60, resigned Dec. 6 in a stunning windup of the majors' winter meeting. The action, reportedly taken at the direction of club owners meeting in executive session, ended a criticized three-year regime.

The need for a baseball man seems the rallying cry in the owners' move to install the game's fifth czar as quickly as possible in the face of growing problems, such as a threatened player strike next spring.

Boomed as a prime candidate, at least in the past, is Mike Burke, who became a director of the New York Yankees four years ago when the Columbia Broadcasting system bought the club and then ascended to Yankee presidency in 1966.

Other potential candidates, more steeped in baseball than Burke, include Judge Robert Cannon of Milwaukee, knowledgable on both sides of the player-owner fence; Chub Feeney, vice president of the San Francisco Giants; Joe Cronin, president of the American League, and general managers Lee MacPhail of the Yankees and Bing Devine of the St. Louis Cardinals.

A National-American League cleavage could develop as the owners size up the best candidate. One of the things that irked the NL about Eckert was the commissioner's failure to veto the AL's gun-jumping a year ago in expanding to 12 clubs in 1969.

Southern Freshmen Win First Game

The Southern Local freshman basketball team won its first game yesterday after five losses, trouncing Springfield 51-39 at Springfield.

The winners trailed 24-21 at halftime but broke loose in the second half. Southern hit 15 of 23 free throws to a mere 1 of 10 for the losers.

Jim Randolph scored 18 points and Jim Crews 12 for Southern. Kevin Croskey paced Springfield with 19.

76ers Keep Pace

Bullets Top Warriors, Keep NBA East Lead

By The Associated Press

The Baltimore Bullets have discovered the secret for keeping atop of things in the National Basketball Association's torrid Eastern Division race—don't lose. It's about the only way.

The Bullets rode some timely late shooting by Kevin Loughery to their sixth straight victory Wednesday night—a 109-100 conquest of San Francisco.

Since runner-up Philadelphia whipped Seattle 115-111, the Bullets needed the triumph to preserve their precarious one game edge over the 76ers.

In other games, Detroit survived a 40-point shelling by rookie Elvin Hayes for a 124-112 victory over San Diego, New York turned back Boston 104-98, Atlanta stopped Milwukee 122-116 and Phoenix defeated Cincinnati 123-114.

The Bullets had only an 80-76 lead after three quarters against the crippled Warriors, but then Loughery scored 10 of his 26 points to put it away.

Teammate Gus Johnson contributed 21 points and 23 rebounds—15 in the final half—and Wes Unseld had 26 rebounds and 15 points to offset a 30-point showing by San Francisco's Jeff Mullins.

The Warriors, suffering their eighth loss in nine games, played without star Nate Thurmond and Clyde Lee.

Philadelphia, in extending its mastery over Seattle, staved off a last-ditch rally by the Super Sonics and whipped them for the 10th consecutive time. The Sonics, who came into the league last season as an expansion club, never have beaten the 76ers.

Philadelphia led 60-58 at halftime, and then pulled in front 101-85 early in the fourth period before the Sonics launched their spirited comeback.

Seattle closed within 112-111 with 61 seconds to go on a basket by Lenny Wilkens only to have the 76ers score the final three points.

The Sonics' Bob Rule garnered scoring laurels with 36 points and Chet Walker provided most of Philadelphia's punch with 30.

Phoenix reeled off the first nine points and was never headed after that in preventing Cincinnati from capitalizing on Boston's loss and moving into third place in the Eastern Division.

Gail Goodrich, who finished with 34, scored 15 points in the opening quarter to help stake the Suns to the early lead. Then, after being blanked in the second quarter, he came up with 17 in the third session to thwart a Royals' rally.

Jerry Lucas topped Cincinnati with 24 points, Oscar Robertson had 23 and Connie Dkerking 22.

Atlanta shook off a late Milwaukee rally for its sixth straight victory to move to within 4½ games of idle Los Angeles in the Western Division.

The Bucks, down by as many as 16 points in the third quarter, moved to within three points before Joe Caldwell and Zelmo Beaty keyed the Hawks' final period comeback.

Beaty finished with 27 points. Len Chappell and Jon McGlocklin each had 23 for the Bucks.

Detroit's triumph over the Rockets not only broke an eight-game losing streak, but also gave the Pistons their first victory since Paul Seymour took over as coach seven games ago.

Hayes, who also picked up 19 rebounds, had his production offset by a well-balanced Piston attack, topped by Jimmy Walker and Happy Hairston with 27 each.

The Rockets led 57-54 at the half before Walker dumped in 11 and Dave Bing nine in a third quarter spree that lifted the Pistons to an 81-78 lead. San Diego, which lost its fourth straight, managed to tie it in the final quarter, but then Detroit took control again.

New York rolled to a 64-48 halftime edge, then withstood a rally to hand the Celtics their third straight loss.

Boston slowly revived during the third quarter and tied it 71-71 on Don Nelson's hook. But Walt Bellamy, who scored 18 points, countered with six in a two-minute span to trigger the Knicks to an 82-78 lead.

The Celtics trimmed the lead to 99-97 late in the game before Walt Frazier and Dick Barnett each hit a pair of free throws to ensure New York's victory.

Barnett and Willis Reed each scored 24, while Bailey Howell had 32 for the Celtics.

Junior Editors Quiz on BATTERIES

QUESTION: What is in a radio battery?

* * * *

ANSWER: A radio must have electric power by which to operate. In a large radio this will come from the house current (top). Small batteries (E) provide the current for portable radios. Large batteries have cells in which plates, usually zinc and carbon, are dipped in a chemical solution. When the plates are connected with electric wires, the chemicals and plates work together to produce an electric current. In a dry cell, (F), such as used to operate a flashlight, the liquid of the larger battery is replaced by a paste containing chemicals. There is a carbon rod in the center and a zinc shell, separated from the paste by a cardboard lining soaked in chemicals. Inside (E) is a stack of a number of very small dry cells which work on the same principle shown in (F). These work together to produce electric current which operates your radio. In a portable radio, tiny transistors (G) take the place of the bulky vacuum tubes of the larger radio (H). These amplify or enlarge the electric signals.

(Brenda Guyes of Laconia, N.H., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Junior Editors Quiz on BATTERIES

QUESTION: What is in a radio battery?

* * * *

ANSWER: A radio must have electric power by which to operate. In a large radio this will come from the house current (top). Small batteries (E) provide the current for portable radios. Large batteries have cells in which plates, usually zinc and carbon, are dipped in a chemical solution. When the plates are connected with electric wires, the chemicals and plates work together to produce an electric current. In a dry cell, (F), such as used to operate a flashlight, the liquid of the larger battery is replaced by a paste containing chemicals. There is a carbon rod in the center and a zinc shell, separated from the paste by a cardboard lining soaked in chemicals. Inside (E) is a stack of a number of very small dry cells which work on the same principle shown in (F). These work together to produce electric current which operates your radio. In a portable radio, tiny transistors (G) take the place of the bulky vacuum tubes of the larger radio (H). These amplify or enlarge the electric signals.

(Brenda Guyes of Laconia, N.H., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)
